The last issue was Vol. 5 No. 6, published March, 1984. This is the first issue since that one. Therefore, you have not been missing any issues, but the editor has been tardy due to the press of practice. A good deal has accumulated, so this one will be 60 pages instead of 40. Filled with Graysons which will require much of your time. Happy Holidays and Happy Hunting to you all! And thanks from all of us to all you who contributed your research for the Newsletter.

History

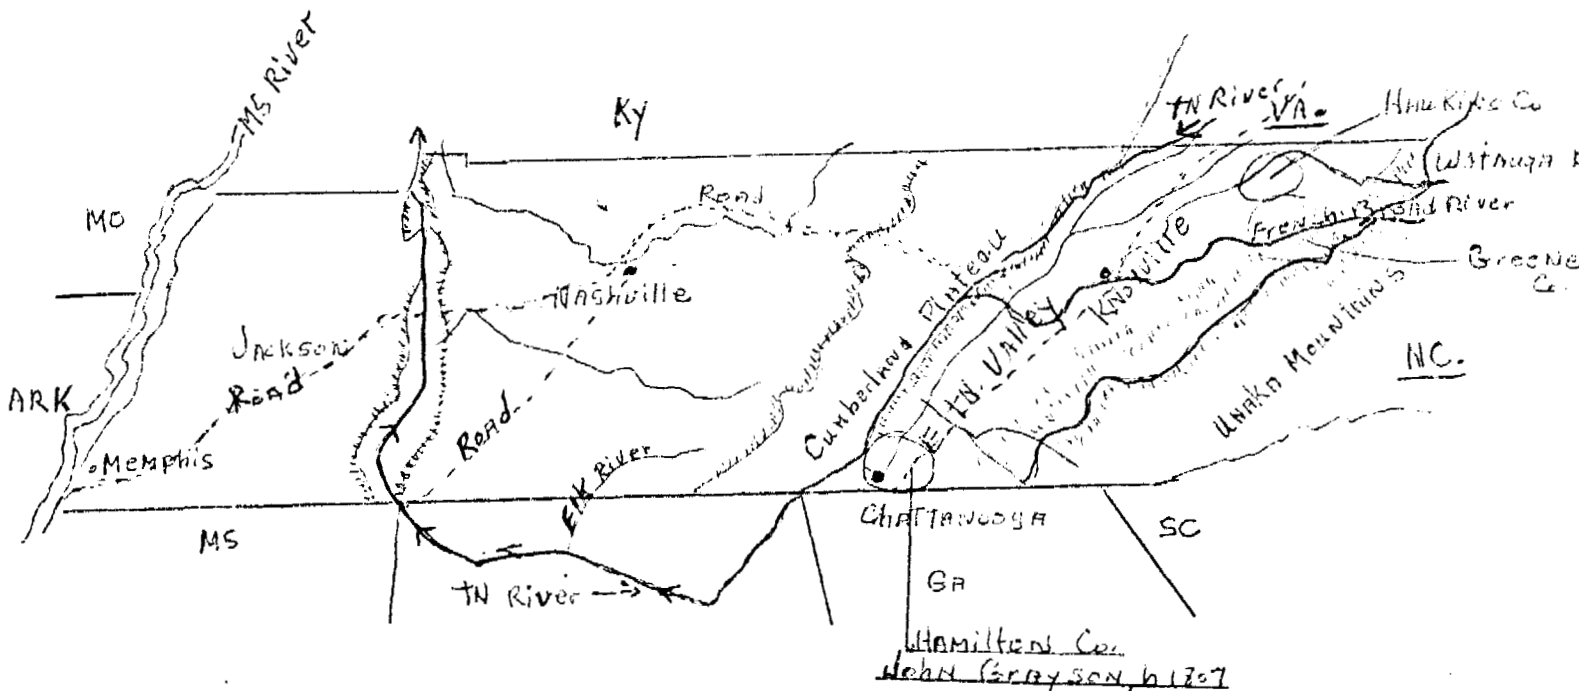

by Betty L. Clark

In April 1783 the northern half of Middle TN. was made Davidson Co., N.C. The state of N.C. was issuing land grants in this area to its rev. war veterans and also offered land to anyone at $.05 per acre to anyone. In 7 months nearly 4 million acres was sold, the region around Watauga and Cumberland rapidly filled.

In 1784 N.C. granted the remaining land in TN. to the US Gov., which the US declined. The WATAUGANS were indignant and tried to form a new state, Franklin, however, N.C. rescinded its offer and took TN. back. Confusion and quarreling ensued and the people finally favored the old NC. Gov...some of the Franklinites migrated to the SW. In 1785-1786 some settled in the forks of the French Broad and Holston Rivers at White. Fort, which is Knoxville today.

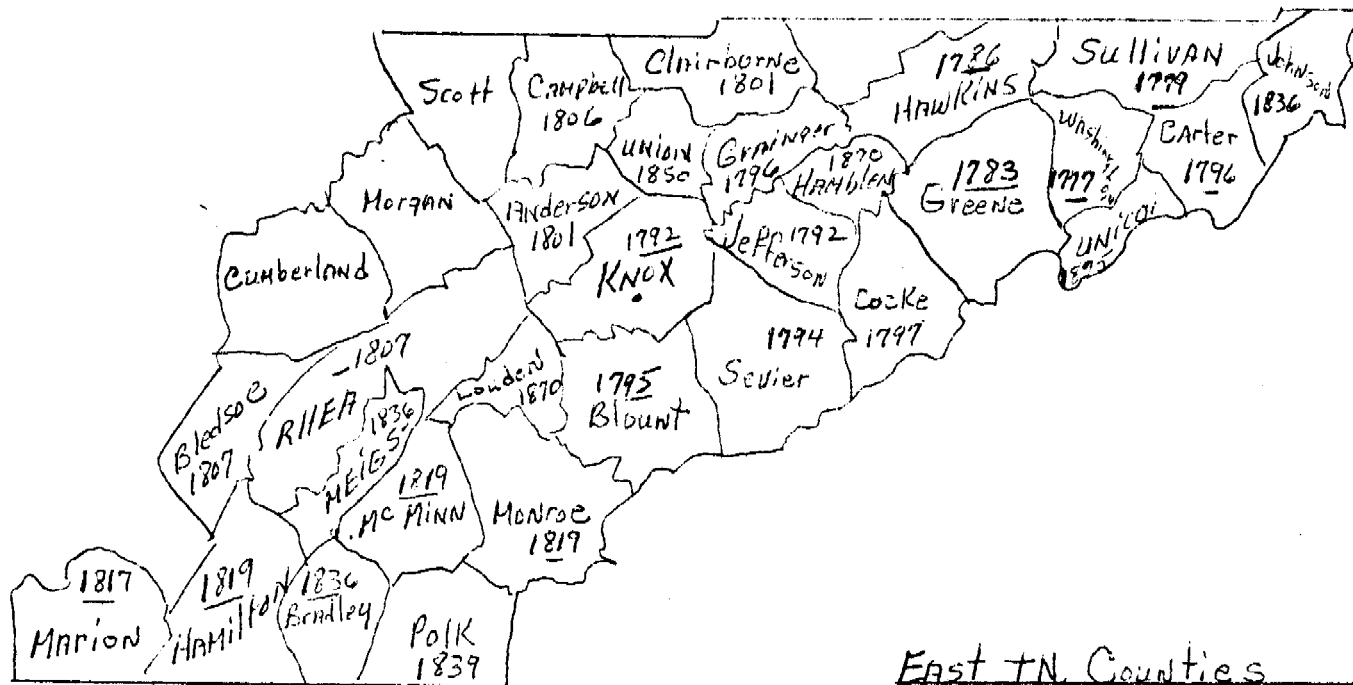

In 1789 N.C. granted its TN. lands to the US again. The US accepted and in 1790 the area was made Territory of the US South of the River Ohio.

Wm. Blount was Gov., John Sevier, brig. Gen., and James Robertson the Western Brig. Gen.. Gov. Blount's first act was to visit existing counties: Washington, Sullivan, Greene and Hawkins in East TN.. and Davidson, Sumner, and Tennessee in Middle TN.. The Gov. selected White's Fort as the territorial capitol and named it Knoxville. In 1794 the first legislature met. Statehood, June 1796, the 16th State of U.S.

Thomas L. Hawkins. In Onachita County, in the State of Arkansas, and in the year 1857, was born Thomas L. Hawkins, the subject of this sketch. He is one of the eleven children born to John and Susie Hunter Hawkins, who were married January 27, 1811. The father, a native of Mississippi, and born July 8, 1821, was by profession a carpenter, besides which he devoted a great deal of attention to tilling the soil. The mother was born in Bladen County, Miss., on September 1, 1821. Only eight of their children are now living; the subject of this sketch being the fourth son; Robert is farmer living in Nevada County, William (a prominent planter of Nevada County), Jane E. (at present the wife of W. L. Brown, of Onachita County), Sarah P. (now Mrs. J. Lester, of Onachita County), Martha (now Mrs. T. Grayson, whose husband is postmaster at Princeton, Ark.), Roy Anna (Mrs. J. M. Parker, of Onachita County), and Margarette S. (the wife of Fred Rubebright). The family moved from Mississippi to Arkansas in the year 1841, settling in Camden, Onachita County. From that point they migrated to Nevada County in 1873, where they remained until the death of the father, which occurred in 1887. He being a faithful member of the Methodist Church, and one to whom duty had been the guide of his life ever, passed away calmly and quietly, wrapped in the faith that attends the death of Christian people. Thomas Hawkins, whose name heads this sketch, was united in holy wedlock with Miss Hollie B. Brown, November 16, 1882. She is a daughter of William and Susan Varied Brown, and a native of Iowa, having been born in that State August 13, 1861. Three children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins, of whom Floyd W. is living, and Hollie and an infant who was never named, are dead. Mr. Hawkins is the owner of a very fine farm, which is in a good state of cultivation, and improved after the newest methods and done in farming. Himself and wife are members of the Baptist Church. He is a prominent Democrat and a citizen much respected by all who know him.

Benjamin J. Harrison. Few farmers and stock raisers of Lake City Township have been more universally successful than the subject of this sketch, who is a native of Marshall County, Tenn., born November 27, 1814. He is a son of J. W. Harrison, born and reared in Virginia, who, when a young man, moved to Tennessee, and there married Lucy Raneline Culberhouse, a native of North Carolina. He then located on a farm in Marshall County, and there engaged for several years in agricultural pursuits. In 1856 he came to what is now Craighead County, Ark., where he resided until his death, in 1881, his wife having previously died, in 1871. Benjamin J. was but twelve years of age when he came with his father to this State, and he grew to manhood and was educated in Craighead County, remaining with his father until his marriage. In 1863 he enlisted in the Confederate service, Fourteenth Tennessee Cavalry, and served until near the close of the war, being at home on a furlough at the time of the surrender. He was second sergeant, was once captured, and participated in a number of engagements. Returning home, he engaged in farming and in 1861, when, in June, he bought a building in Lake City, put in a stock of general merchandise, and followed mercantile business for three years. December 25 following, he lost everything by fire, having no insurance, his loss is estimated at $10,000. The following fall he rebuilt the store and rented it, himself moving to a farm near the village, where he has since resided. He has a comfortable home, with 125 acres of good land in splendid state of cultivation, and a large orchard of 1,300 trees, mostly apple, and all choice fruits, some just beginning to bear. March 25, 1868, he married Miss Mary E. Lewis, a native of this county, who died in 1877, leaving two sons. Mr. Harrison chose a second wife, and February 14, 1878, was united in marriage with Victoria Eveline Grayson, born, reared and educated in this county, and a daughter of Col. Adam D. Grayson, a colonel in the Confederate army, killed at the battle of Shiloh. Mrs. Grayson died March 5, 1880. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison have also two sons, the four children being John A., George T., James and Walter S. Mrs. Harrison is a member of the Methodist Church. Mr. Harrison owns in connection with his farm, a cotton gin and grist mill, possessing also hotel property in Lake City. He is one of the leading spirits of the community.

successful farmer, and a home to the parents, was one of Jackson County's pioneers.

Benjamin F. Grimes, farmer and stock raiser, now residing on Section 6, and owning land on Sections 8, 9, 6 and 17, is a son of Lemmie and Ruthy B. (Eubey) Grimes, natives of Kentucky. Lewis was a son of James and Sallie Bryan (Grimes) Grimes, natives of Virginia, Sallie Grimes being a sister of Daniel Boone, the Kentucky pioneer. The subject of our sketch was born in Fayette County, Ky., March 24, 1830, receiving his education partly in the private schools of his native State, he also attended the State Normal School of Columbia, S. C., and finished his education at Washington College, Virginia, in 1854, when he returned home where he engaged in farming and stock raising, finding a market for his horses and mules in the Carolina. In 1859 he purchased 122 acres of land in Bourbon and Nicholas Counties. June 5, 1862, he enlisted in Company I, Forty-eighth Regiment, Volunteer Infantry, Confederate States Army, serving fourteen months as a private, when he received a commission from the secretary of war of the Confederate States of America, to raise a regiment, which was mustered into service in November, 1862, and was ordered to McMinnville, Tenn., under Gen. John H. Morgan, and finally entered the secret service. In the winter of 1863 Col. Grimes was captured, taken to Lexington, Ky., and thrown into what was known as Gen. John H. Morgan's nigger prison; he was kept there ten days, when he was transferred to Kemper Barracks, Cincinnati, where he was kept in solitary confinement four months and twenty three days, during which time he was court-martialed and sentenced to death on Johnson's Island, in Lake Erie, but six hours before the time for the execution he made his escape by bribing the guards with money given him by a lady friend, and by sliding down a lightning rod hand over hand, thirty feet. He took the train for St. Louis, but, fearing danger, stopped off at Independence Station, Ill. During his long service Col. Grimes participated in the battles of Filmore, Chancellorsville, South Mountain, Antietam, and the days' fight before Richmond, Spotsylvania, Five Forks, Perryville, and many skirmishes, leading to mention. April 4, 1862, Col. Grimes married Mrs. Hobe (Grayson) Butler, daughter of Col. William F. B. Grayson, of Kentucky, who was a son of Robert Harrison Grayson. Col. Grimes is a member of the Christian Church, his wife being a member of the Episcopal, having been connected with her father, at his death but, in 1870, by Bishop Cummings.

Dr Grayson

I recently noted your ad in the Genealogical Helper regarding your GRAYSON family association. I am searching for information of a Nancy GRAYSON believed to have married my 6th generation grandfather John CROUCH, probably around 1800, and possibly in Harrison County Kentucky. I believe their children were: Matilda m. John Siguer, Mary m. Hezekiah Longnecker, William Joseph m. Susannae Lowell, John m. Maria Markland, Thomas and Richard.

John who married Maria Markland is my direct line. They were married in Boone County Kentucky, later lived in Indiana.

Do you have any information on this Nancy GRAYSON? I should be happy to contribute to your association if I am indeed of your GRAYSON line.

Sincerely

Dear Dr. Grayson,

Enclosed are the family charts we have collected on the descendants of Hiram Thomas Grayson. Sorry it has taken so long to get them to you. Graduate school has taken ^{the} front seat in my spare time. Hopefully next fall I'll be able to get back into my research.

We are really enjoying the newsletters. The history of Grayson's has been very interesting. I sincerely hope the subscribers grow in numbers. The newsletters are a terrific way to exchange information.

Hope this letter finds you and your family in good health. Looking forward to the next newsletter

Sincerely,

Peggy J. Stanley

HIRAM THOMAS GRAYSON

The progenitor of the Grayson's of Clay County, Arkansas Hiram Thomas Grayson. Hiram was born 25 April 1838 near Westport, Decatur County, Indiana. He was the fourth child of Wren and Lucinda (Williamson) Grayson Jr.

Hiram grew up in a large family and learned at an early age to till the land. By the time the youngest of his siblings was born he was married. Thus he was a part of a continually growing family.

On 3 May 1857 Hiram married Elizabeth Catherine Myers in Greensburgh, Decatur County, Indiana. Elizabeth's brother, James, married Hiram's sister, Rebecca. For the first few years Hiram and Eliza made their home in Westport, Decatur County.

The Civil War touched this young family when Hiram was enlisted 20 September 1861 in B Company, 52 nd Infantry, Indiana Volunteers by Captain W.L. Strickland. Thus he left his wife and two young children to serve his country.

Hiram reported to Camp Morton, Indiana. The only major battle he was involved in was the siege of Fort Donnelson, Tennessee. On 16 February 1862 Hiram became ill from exposure to bad weather while on Picket guard. He was ill the next few months. Finally on 17 May 1862 he was admitted to Number 1 General Hospital, Tere Haute, Indiana. They then furloughed Hiram from 20 May to 10 August 1862. At this point his military service became scrambled. Hiram was erroneously mustered out 18 August 1862 which caused him to be considered a deserter. Finally he rjoined his regiment 25 April 1863 and was discharged 3 August 1863 at Fort Pillow, Tennessee.

After Hiram returned to Westport, he and his family moved to Boxley, Hamilton County, Indiana, where he returned to his occupation as a farmer. However Hiram did not ever fully recover from the illness he suffered in the war which made farming very hard for him.

Hiram and Eliza were blest with the birth of ten children in their marriage, all except one grew to adulthood. The one died when he was accidently shot by his older brother, James Thomas.

On 27 October 1887 Hiram purchased 40 acres of land in Corning, Clay County, Arkansas. Hiram, Eliza and four of their children moved there. James Thomas, Hiram's eldest, brought his wife and two young sons. Samuel, William, and Della all came unmarried. Hiram lived in Arkansas until sometime after 1900. He then returned to Indiana where he lived out his life. The other children with the exception of Della remained in Arkansas. Della also returned to Indiana sometime after her marriage.

Eliza died 4 March 1901 in Hamilton County, Indiana leaving Hiram in ill health. His daughters took care of him until his death on 13 August 1918 in Sheridan, Hamilton County, Indiana. Hiram Thomas Grayson was laid to rest next to his wife and son in the East Union Christian Church Cemetery, located on US 31 on the Hamilton-Tipton County line.

JAMES THOMAS GRAYSON

Born 17 November 1858, Westport, Decatur County, Indiana was James Thomas Grayson, the eldest prodigy of Hiram Thomas Grayson and Elizabeth Catherine Myers. About the time James was five years of age his father returned from the Civil War and they moved to Boxley, Hamilton County, Indiana. It was there that James Thomas grew to manhood learning his father's occupation as a farmer.

James Thomas took Rachel C. A. Cline to be his helpmate on 8 March 1884 in Boxley. The young couple were blest with the birth of their first child, Sanford Franklin, on 13 February 1885. Shortly after the birth of their second son, James Fredric, born 27 October 1886, James and Rachel moved their young family to Clay County, Arkansas. It was there that the couple made their home. They were blest with the birth of six more children making a total of eight born to James and Rachel, however one died at one and a half.

The Grayson's made themselves known in the community. They were supporters of the local Methodist Church. James was known as one of the most successful farmers in the Corning area. It is said that they were always ready to lend a helping hand. Mrs Grayson, Rachel, was a member of the local Maccabee Order and the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

In retrospect we see that the Grayson's were by no means rich but seemed to be well accepted by those of the Corning community who were said to be wealthy. A newspaper account of a luncheon given by Mrs. Grayson sums it up "they know well how to extend the hospitality of thier farm home."

James Thomas Grayson not only mastered his skills as a farmer but also showed in the furniture he built that he had some of the skills his brother Sam had mastered as a carpenter. Then on the other hand we see his skills in hunting in an article published in the Clay County Courier by Jim Cliver. James is pictured with a ten point buck he had killed in a local hunt. Thus we can see where his grandsons have gotten their ability to be "Jacks of all Trades".

SANFORD FRANKLIN GRAYSON

James Thomas and Rachel Cecilia Annie (Cline) Grayson were blest with the birth of their first child, Sanford Franklin, on 13 February 1885 at Boxley, Hamilton County, Indiana. In 1887 James and his young family moved to Corning, Clay County, Arkansas. It was there that Sanford grew to manhood and lived the rest of his life.

Sanford Franklin, known as Frank, was a man who believed in God, supported his country and knew the importance of getting his education. In 1900, he joined the Corning Methodist Church where his parents attended church. Frank was a member of the first graduating class of Corning High School in 1903. In order to support his country Frank joined the Corning Unit, Arkansas National Guard. He was fortunate enough not to be called overseas during the First World War.

Frank met his future wife in a scda shop. When they were married he was 32 and his wife, Miss Leona Elizabeth Handwerk, was 18. They were united in marriage on 8 April 1917. To this union was born three children: Ethel Mildred, born 11 July 1919; James Lawrence, born 22 September 1921; and Mable Irene, born 2 September 1925. All three children were born in Corning, Arkansas.

Frank, as most men of his day, worked hard to support his family. He worked for Oliver and Company, Sheeks-Stevens Merchantile, and eventually engaged in farming which he followed until his death.

After the death of his father, Sanford faught hard to keep he and his brothers and sisters from loosing the farm which their father owned. However they were unsuccessful. So Sanford eventually purchased the eighty acres which had been lost. Sanford's widow presently lives on that farm which James Thomas bought in 1907.

Sanford Franklin Grayson died 19 June 1952 while tending his evening chores. He suffered none in that his death from thrumboses was instant. He was interred in the Corning Cemetery, Corning, Arkansas.

Richard Grayson,

From phone contact awhile ago on the Grayson family. My husband & I made a trip to Tenn where we located data from the library of the research you made on the family. We are most interested in someone that has worked on the family tree. I talk with some of the folks in Whitwell, Tenn and they seem to think you had a better tree of the whole family. I have enclosed some of the data we have located in our search. The tree here at a stand still as for the father of Harvey Grayson. Not sure the kin of the William Grayson he is noted with on the 1850 census (father or grandfather) could even be an uncle?? All the family contact I can find only know the kin back to Harvey!

As you know from research on the Grayson family there are many. I have enclosed info that you may or maynot have. I feel this line could be kin to the Wren as a distant cousin because of the similar names used in the family. As I mentioned on the phone- this Harvey in his last days moved to the Montague county, Texas and died 1906 there with his wife a few years later. Now the family line of Henry that married Nancy Hixon that you serched , his son James Grayson also moved to Montague county, Tx.!! There must have been some kin??

The following the family of my husband:

Donald Lee Bigbee (1938-)

Altie Grayson Bigbee(1919-)

Samuel Lafayette Grayson(1875-1949)

William Harvey Grayson(1830-1906)

Look forward to hearing from you on data about the Grayson family.

Sincerely,

Mrs Don Bigbee

P.S. You spoke of your Wren Grayson having Benj. as the father, what was the wife name?

This letter sent from Joan

Dear Mr. Grayson,

It was most kind of you to answer my letter. I learned about you accidentally. A distant cousin sent me a Xerox part of a letter she had received from a Mrs. Van Valkenburg in Huntsville. This letter from Mrs. VanValkenburg mentioned your name and address. This Mrs. VanValkenburg is the granddaughter of the late Dr. Ambrose Grayson and owns the Bible in which is found the family record of John and Sally (Carter) Grayson. It came to her from her grandfather and was in his possession when my aunt saw it around 16 years ago.

Mrs. Lula Petty's grandfather Grayson was a brother of my grandfather Grayson. They were the only sons to live and marry. The other died at age 20. The name is Clan, not Clam. My great-grandfather was Ambrose Clan Grayson, his oldest son was John & Clan Grayson (Mrs. Petty's grandfather), and John Clan Grayson had a grandson named Columbus Clan Petty. Oddly enough, Mrs. Petty's maiden name was Petty. She first married a Mr. Grimes and was a widow when she married her present husband. In reality she is Lula (Petty) Grimes Petty. I, too, have wondered at the origin of the name Clan.

PLEASE send me a copy of the report on the Grayson family you had prepared by the Media Research Bureau in Washington, D.C. You stated that you have been unable to make a definite tie between the Graysons mentioned in the report with our line but found many of the ones mentioned in the Clayton Library. Our line is related to the one found in records in most genealogical libraries and I will try to explain how.

AMBROSE GRAYSON was born in 1680 in England and died in 1742 in Spotsylvania Co., Virginia. He married Alice (James) James, a young widow with 2 children (1 an infant) late in 1726. Their children were: JOHN, Ambrose, Benjamin, William, Alice, Susannah, Ann, Reuben, Thomas. John was the father of the John Grayson who married Sally Carter. When AMBROSE GRAYSON died (1742) his children were under age. He left a will in which he named his brother BENJAMINE as administrator of his estate.

BENJAMIN GRAYSON (see above) was born in England in 1692 and died in 1757 in Prince William Co., Virginia at his estate "Del Air." He was a prominent merchant and had married Susannah (Monroe) Tyler Linton who was a first cousin of Pres. James Monroe's grandfather Monroe. Their children were: Benjamin, Spence (a minister), William, and Susanna. Spence was a captain in the Revolution attached to his brother William's unit. William was a colonel in the war, and was one of the first 2 senators from Virginia. Grayson Co., Virginia was named for him.

DEL AIR

BENJAMIN GRAYSON and his descendants got into the records because he was a prominent merchant, and because his sons distinguished themselves in the R&V. The fact that Benjamin's wife was a Monroe also added to the prominence of the family. It is not definitely known who the father was of AMBROSE and BENJAMIN but is thought to be John Grayson who died in Spotsylvania Co., Va. in 1736 without a will. His wife's name was Susannah. He was in that county by 1714 and came there from Lancaster Co., Virginia. (Some think she was white)

The John William Grayson who was the son of James Gordon Grayson, was the father of the late Dr. Ambrose Grayson. I don't know about him.

The family charts on JOHN GRAYSON - BARBARA (TURDYNE) GRAYSON and ALBROSE GRAYSON - ALICE (JAMES) JAMES GRAYSON were prepared by the late Maj. Maurice Gordon of Madisonville, Kentucky. He was descended from the oldest child of John and Barbara Grayson, Elizabeth. She married John Gordon II. We descend from the youngest son (possibly youngest child) of John and Barbara. John and Barbara Grayson sold all their land in Spotsylvania Co., and around 1760 moved from Culpeper Co., Va. to what is now Montgomery Co., Va. At that time it was Fincastle Co. and remained so until the 1770's. Barbara Grayson died before January 1800 because John Grayson wrote his will then and requested that he be buried next to her. He died in 1802 and his will is recorded in Montgomery Co., Virginia (Christiansburg is the county seat). The chart has ~~incorrectly~~ Barbara's death as 1801 but that is not right for reasons above. I have a copy of John Grayson's will.

JOHN GRAYSON, Jr. married Sarah "Sally" Carter in Montgomery Co., Va. Oct. 23, 1792. It was not recorded until May 17, 1793. In Colonial Virginia, ministers and J.P.s were required to record marriages only once a year - thus the delay. Your ancestor, George Grayson, was their oldest child and was born 11 January 1794 in Montgomery Co., Virginia. He was named for his grandfather, Captain George Carter. John and Sally's marriage record is available as is John Grayson, Sr.'s will.

Captain George Carter served in the American Revolution and his record is proven. My aunt and I are both members of the DAR on his record. I can send you a copy of his record if you want it. John Grayson, Sr. also served in the Revolution.

John Grayson, Jr. was the first white settler in northern Alabama. He settled in the Big Cove area of Madison Co. when my aunt went to Alabama about 16 years and met Dr. Grayson, he still owned John and Sally Grayson's home.

Your great-grandfather wasn't the only Grayson who came to Texas. The Dr. Napoleon H. Grayson who lives here in Lufkin came to Texas from Madison Co., Ala. when a young child. Charles and Jackson Grayson (sons of John and Sally) were in Texas by 1837 and my great-grandfather, Ambrose Clan Grayson, came to Texas 1840. Nancy (Grayson) Sartain and her family were also in Texas early. Charles and Jackson Grayson married sisters, Elizabeth and Anna Craft. I correspond with a descendent of each of them.

Rusk Co.

settled in Madison Co. 1840

Charles and Jackson settled in Macogdoon

I am including the following charts:

1. Ambrose Grayson - Alice (James) James Grayson
2. John Grayson - Barbara (Turdyne) Grayson
3. John Grayson - Sally (Carter) Grayson

I have explained ^{the} the first 2 charts come from. The last was prepared by myself and based on the Bible record for this family. I checked the Grayson marriage records for Madison Co., Ala., and also the 1850 census for the same county.

I will call it a fair exchange if you will kindly send me a copy of the report as requested.

Who is Mr. Leon Grayson? Does he fit into our family line anywhere? He is not in my branch anywhere.

There is one last thing. I also have the background of Alice (James) James who married Ambrose Grayson (d. 1742) and a little research I did in connection with it. If you want this and Capt. George Carter's war record please let me know.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Anne...

de Fontevieux, who was born at Paris, France, March 23, 1821, and died May 7, 1886, at Washington, Penn. The children of this union were: Isabel B., who married George M. Laughlin, of Pittsburgh, Penn., and died December 5, 1891; Thomas M. T.; Emma W., who married William W. Smith, of Washington, Penn., and died August 30, 1879; Henry S., who died at Washington, Penn., January 9, 1888; Samuel C.; John D.; Gertrude M.; Annie, who married Alexander W. Biddle, of Philadelphia, Penn.; David W. and William, Jr.

THE GRAYSON FAMILY of Washington, Penn. Nathaniel Grayson, the first of the family of whom we have record, lived and died in or near Glaslaugh, County Monaghan, Ireland, where he carried on a woolen manufactory. He was the father of five children: four sons—George, William, Robert and Thomas—and one daughter—Mary. The family residence was called "New Mills," where the youngest son died, and William and the late Judge John Grayson were born. George, the eldest son, followed the pursuit of his father, and removing to Manchester, England, established a manufactory. The family at latest accounts, still reside there. William, the second son of Nathaniel, preceded his brother to this country, both arriving several years prior to the adoption of the Federal Constitution. Robert, whose wife was Mary Murdock, of Glaslaugh, sister of Robert and John Murdock, prominent citizens of that place, arrived at New Castle, Delaware, in June, 1784, with his wife and son, John, then nine months old, widowed mother and son William. He soon purchased property, locating in Mifflin, Penn., where at an early period his wife and mother died. The family then removed to Carlisle, Cumberland county, Penn., where the sons were reared and educated. After the lapse of several years the father married Mrs. Jane Kennedy, widow of Thomas Kennedy, who tenderly, indulgently and faithfully contributed to raise her stepsons, William and John. The latter in his diary, speaking of his stepmother, remarks: "And even now, in my old age, I recall to mind with tender recollection her devotion and anxious care and industry, as a wife and mother." The children of this marriage were as follows: George, Mary, Margaret and Anne. Mr. Robert Grayson, a citizen, occupied a prominent place and took an active part in the political events of his day. At one time he was sheriff of Cumberland county, and died in Carlisle after a well-spent life.

William was connected with the regular army, and stationed at Carlisle barracks. In 1808 he was ordered to Fort Wayne, Ind., where, soon after his arrival, he died from fever contracted on the march.

Having a taste for the printing business, John Grayson at a suitable age commenced to acquire a knowledge of the same in Carlisle. After close application for four years, he went to Philadelphia and entered the book office of William Duane, editor of The Aurora. From this time until near the breaking out of the war of 1812, Mr. Grayson was engaged in the printing business at different times, in Philadelphia, New York and Baltimore. On June 18, 1812, news was received by express from Washington, D. C., of the declaration of war by Congress against Great Britain, Mr. Grayson being in the city of Baltimore at the time. He at once enlisted in a volunteer regiment, serving as a volunteer in the army until September, 1813, when he was honorably discharged; but immediately re-enlisted in the regular army, serving as lieutenant and adjutant in the regiment to which he belonged until the close of the war, participating in many of the prominent battles. After the close of the war he was appointed by President Madison to the corps of artillery to form part of the "New Seventh Regiment;" but, wishing to return to private life, he resigned his commission September 7, 1815. Returning to Baltimore, he entered the book office of James Kennedy as partner, and remained there until after his marriage. On May 9, 1816, he was married in Baltimore, Md., by Rev. James Inglis, D. D., to Miss Martha Wray, daughter of John and Mary Wray, of that city. Mr. Wray came from Ireland to this country soon after the Revolutionary war, settling in Carlisle, Cumberland Co., Penn., where he became an active citizen, being identified with the business and political interests of the community. He was married to Mary, daughter of John Robinson, of Chester county, Penn. Their family consisted of three children, viz., Thomas R., John and Martha, the wife of Mr. Grayson. Mr. Wray, the father, died in Baltimore, June, 1819, aged sixty-nine years, and Mrs. Wray, having spent a long and useful Christian life, died peacefully in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grayson, Washington, Penn., at the advanced age of ninety-five. In the year 1817, Mr. Grayson purchased in Philadelphia a plant for the establishment of a newspaper. Traveling by stage, he proceeded to Washington, Penn., and issued the first number of The Examiner on May 28, 1817, of which he was sole proprietor and editor until 1833, when he took into partnership William Jack. This partnership continued several years, when Mr. Jack retiring, his son Thomas W. became his partner, Mr. Grayson, senior, retiring in 1840.

Thomas W. Grayson, the eldest son, was born in Baltimore, Md., and brought by his parents, an infant, when they permanently removed to Washington. After his father retired from the editorship, he continued connected with The Examiner until May, 1861, when he removed to Meadville, Penn., there becoming proprietor and editor of The Crawford County Democrat, and continued to edit it for more than twenty years, when he retired on account of ill health. Thomas W. Grayson was married to Miss Mary Elizabeth Green, daughter of Mr. A. Green, of Washington, D. C. Their family consisted of four daughters and one son: Miss Annie, now a resident of Washington, Penn.; Mrs. Mary W. Richmond, wife of A. G. Richmond, Esq., of Meadville, Penn.; Mrs. Martha Ayres, wife of Samuel Ayres, M. D., of Pittsburgh, Penn.; Lucy M. (deceased), and Thomas Wray, a resident of Washington, Penn. Mr. T. W. Grayson died in Meadville, Penn., May 20, 1876, and Mrs. Grayson in Washington, Penn., in February, 1892.

The remaining portion of Mr. and Mrs. John Grayson's family consisted of four sons and two daughters. Of these a son, Stephen, and daughter, Mary J., died in infancy. John Grayson, Esq., at present a resident of Pittsburgh, Penn., until within a few years a prominent and useful citizen of Washington, was married to Miss Sarah Ellen Scott, daughter of Mr. George Scott, of Pittsburgh. Their children: Mary, Lizzie, Eleanor, John, John T., William, and Eugene deceased. Anna Moore, residing with her parents; Sarah E., wife of Mr. Douglas Buchanan, Pittsburgh, Penn., and Harry S., of the same city.

William Grayson, son of Judge Grayson, graduated at Washington College, studied law with John L. Gow, Esq., was admitted to the bar. He was a young man of fine, scholarly attainments, a close student with bright hopes before him, but died just entering upon a professional life, lamented by all who knew him.

Miss Martha, the only remaining daughter, is a graduate of the Washington Female Seminary, and during the principalship of Mrs. Hanna was an instructress in that institution. Being a member of the Presbyterian Church, she is much interested in the missionary efforts of that body. Miss Grayson resides at and dispenses the hospitalities of the homestead. Dr. Wray Grayson resides in his native place. At an early age he entered Washington College, and graduated in the class of 1846. Soon after he commenced reading medicine, finishing his studies, and receiving his degree at the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, in 1853. With the exception of ten years, when engaged in hospital practice, Dr. Grayson's entire professional life has been spent in his native place. In 1877 the Doctor was married to Miss Margaret Hazlett, daughter of Mr. Samuel Hazlett (banker), of Washington, Penn. He is a member of the "American Medical Association," "The Pennsylvania State Medical Society," and the "Washington County Medical Society."

Judge John Grayson's ancestry were adherents to the Evangelical Church; and for many years he was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, Washington, Penn. Reference has already been made to his faithful services during the war of 1812. In after life he was appointed and elected to the following official positions: Register of wills by Governor Wolf in 1830; re-appointed by same in 1833. Appointed, by Governor Porter, prothonotary of Washington county, and in 1839 was elected to same office. In March, 1843, he was appointed associate judge of the courts of Washington county, by Governor Porter; in 1853 was appointed, by President Pierce, pension agent; in 1857 was appointed to same by President Buchanan, and continued performing the duties of that office in Pittsburgh, Penn., until August, 1861. Although a large portion of Mr. Grayson's life was occupied with the public duties mentioned, he nevertheless took a deep interest in matters pertaining to the moral and educational improvement of the community in which he lived. He was the fast friend of educational institutions, and in connection with other venerated and spirited citizens, assisted in establishing the Ladies' Seminary of Washington, Penn., performing the duties of treasurer of the board of trustees for more than thirty years, when advancing age compelled him to resign—yet, as a trustee and stockholder, he continued to take a deep interest in the institution. Mr. Grayson retained in a remarkable degree his mental vigor, and was interested in everything pertaining to the public welfare almost to the hour of his death, which event occurred March 11, 1871, with the full assurance of a blessed immortality, his last words being: "Passing, passing, entering through. Peaceful, peaceful, peaceful with God in Christ through all eternity."

Mrs. Grayson died April 20, 1865, at the age of seventy-five, leaving the cherished record of a useful life; loving and affectionate in her home, at the same time reaching forth with sympathetic heart and generous hand to others. Her memory is revered by all who knew her.

ROBERT HAZLETT, head of the Hazlett family of Washington, Penn., with his wife, Mary Colwell Hazlett, came to America from Coleraine, Ireland, about the close of the Revolutionary war. They settled in Carlisle, Cumberland Co., Penn., where their children, Hugh, Isaac, John and Jane, were born. In 1793 they concluded to change their residence for a home in the South (Kentucky), but upon arriving at Washington over the road then traveled from Red Stone Fort, they were detained on account of a severe storm. Dear Doctor Grayson:

Some time before the end of this year, I hope to have the Shepherd family records in shape to place a copy in the Arizona state library, although there are still many gaps to fill. This will just be a binder - not a publication. Most of what I have on the Graysons was gleaned from your very welcome Newsletters. I trust that there is no objection to my using this information, with references noted of your Newsletter, of course. If there is any objection, please advise.

In brief, this is the Grayson lineage information that I have for my direct line: I have the first Grayson in Virginia as John B. Grayson, born in England ca. 1668. Arrived Virginia between 1700 and 1720, with sons Thomas, Ambrose and possibly Benjamin. One reference shows his wife as Susannah White. John B. died 31 March, 1736 (prove), in Spotsylvania County, Va. Other children: John, Jr, William and Mary.

Son, Ambrose, born 16__ in Scotland or England. Married 1726 to Alice James, widow of John James. Died 1743(?) - will proved March 1743. Residence Spotsylvania County. Ten children: John (husband of Barbara Burdyne), 1727-1802, Ambrose, Thomas, Alice, Susannah, Ann, Reuben, Elizabeth, Mary and my ancestor, Captain William Grayson, who married Ann Smith.

Capt. William resided in Albemarle County, Va; was born ca. 1732 in Spotsylvania Co. and died in 1829 in Albemarle Co. Wife was Ann Smith, dau. of Thomas Smith. Capt. William's children were: Joseph, Thomas, Martha, Elizabeth, Susannah and John, who is indicated to be my ancestor, born ca. 1767. Other than census records and Capt. William's reference to a son John in his will, I have no real proof on this John, who logically was the father of John Jefferson Grayson.

John Jefferson Grayson, born 26 Nov; 1789, m. 16 July, 1812 to Susanna Britt. Served in War of 1812. Died 14 April, 1862 in Logan Co. Ky. Children: Sally (died in infancy), Elizabeth, Julia Ann, William J., John Thomas, Susan Caroline, Margaret Amanda, Willis Henry, Mary America and my Grandmother, Jane Grayson, who married William R. Nathaniel Shepherd. Jane was b. 25 Oct; 1830 in Russellville, Logan Co. Ky. m. 25 Sept; 1851, d. 17 July, 1895, Logan Co. Children: Robert James (30 July, 1852-18Jan; 1913), Aribella Stewart Williams (8 May 1858-20 March 1934), Regennia Susan Rives (1 May 1861), Mary Frances Wood (20 Jan; 1864-1 Feb; 1881, Georgia Elizabeth Free (18 Feb; 1867- 1951), and my father, John Jefferson Shepherd, (10 Feb; 1870-11 Oct; 1950). John Jefferson Shepherd married Ella Jenkins (4 Jan; 1875-23 Feb; 1938), dau. of Riley Jenkins.

John Jefferson Shepherd and Ella Jenkins were the parents of eight children, of whom I am seventh. I am married to Luella (Mack), whose mother was Lura Alton, a direct descendant of Isaac Allerton, a London Tailor who was on the Mayflower. Since the records start with our two sons, one can see that there are some interesting people in their background, but none more interesting than the Graysons!

Our two sons are: James W. Shepherd, of Newark, Delaware, married to Priscilla La Grange and Jon M. Shepherd, of Wilmette, Illinois, married to Emily Kay Hopkins. We have five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, one of whom was born on June 29, 1984 to Jacqueline June (Shepherd) Arpino in Delaware.

You will be interested to know that this latest offspring was named James Grayson Arpino!

I look forward to receiving another issue of the Newsletter.

Sincerely,

James G. Shepherd

Dear Sir:

I have subscribed to your newsletter since copy Vol. 2, #1, but do not have any previous copies. Are there such? If so, do you still have a copy of each of them left that I could buy? If so, how much and I will send same immediately.

You have heard from me before, but I have moved to the above address and would appreciate your sending your newsletter to same next time. Since you heard from me, I retired from being superintendent of schools at Dripping Springs, Texas in June, 1982. My husband and I bought a big motor home and "lived" in it for six months while we toured the areas of our ancestors, including the Graysons. We did research among the original records all over Md., Va., W. Va., Ky., Tn., N. C., S. C., Ala., Ga., Ms., etc. This was our third, but longest original records research trip, the other two having lasted six weeks each.

Now that both my husband and I have retired, I spend much of my time in organizing my family research and am now working actively on the Graysons, my line from John, Ambrose, John and Barbara, John and Sally Carter, George and Cynthia Hanna, George and Manilla Starns, Cynthia Sarah and Charles L. Bateman, Jewel Bateman and Jarome Elledge, my parents. From your bulletins, from my research, from Ella May Underwood, and hundreds of others, I am now in process of compiling the Grayson book that I had promised to write so many years (5) ago. We have not yet been able to go to England, Scotlane, etc. due to the birth of our only grandchild, but still plan to do so.

Would you like to have portions of my book as I complete it, not to publish, but to critique? Also, have you determined who your North Carolina acnestors were? My Elledge families were from Wilkes County, N. C. and I have done much research in that and surrounding counties. I guess I have every Elledge and Grayson transaction recorded prior to 1900. You have also published most of what I have on the Graysons. I am enclosing several notes that I have not seen in your bulletin.

My book takes only documented facts and analyzes them then draws conclusions in what I call the preponderance of the evidence. I do not take what others have sent me without going back to the original records except in later families where the present generation knows the facts. My plan is to start from the first Thomas, father of Charles of Lancaster Christ Church in 1687 and come on down my line with as much collateral information as I may have room for. So far, I have found nothing on this Thomas except that one entry and I found it in the unindexed part of the old Parish Register in Lancaster Co., where my Thornburys, Tayloes, and Billingtons also lived.

I am using your newsletters to substantiate source references where mine may not be as good as possible, and would like your permission to make copies of some of the data from there when applicable. To be sure I would send you a copy for critique prior to any publication.

So far I have several puzzles, as most other Grayson researchers have. Maybe you have already solved these puzzles. One is a document, deed, in 1729 which purports to make Susanna guardian and administratrix of John Grayson, Jr. If this is indeed concerning the death of John Grayson, Jr., then both John and Ambrose would have been under 21 in 1729, which conflicts with all the other data I have on them. Secondly I am puzzled about the will of Stephen Sharp in 1735 which mentions , but which does not clarify, relationships with John and Hoke Grayson and Elizabeth James. What connection did Sharp have with these Graysons? Was Elizabeth James the mother of John James or in any way connected with the Ambrose who married Alice James? Could Sharp's wife have been a Grayson? or could he have been a Grayson female descendent? Do you have an answer to any of this? I have written for both these documents and did not find them in my travels for research. Do you have copies of either of these documents? I will let you know if I get copies from Spotsylvania County.

Most of the literature on Graysons ignores the plain statements in Ambrose's will that he had at least sons John, Ambrose, Benjamin, and Thomas, probably in that order. I have concluded that this son, John, was the one in Orange County, Va. who died in 1755; mine is Ambrose and I have that well documented; have nothing on Benjamin born about 1735-40; and nothing on Thomas at all unless he was the father of The Albemarle family. That early William, who must have been the same who stayed in Spotsylvania until after 1760 might have been another son of the first John and brother of Ambrose, or could have been a son of one of Ambrose's brothers. He is the one that my cousin, Dorothy Wulfeck has so well researched, but I still do not know his real ancestor.

Also, histories show the Graysons coming in about 1690. The only one I have found any record of in that era is Thomas of Christ Church, Lancaster (1687). Could that Thomas have been our John's father who may have gone back to England or could he have been John's brother? Any clues?

I did not mean to burden you with all these questions and know how busy you are. I also know it will take me a long time to do my book, so don't feel compelled to rush and answer, but would appreciate same when you have time.

See inclosed sheet which, if you already have, please just throw away.

I think I am current in my payments for Newsletter, but if not, please let me know so I can keep current. I try to pay an extra time each time.

I am especially interested in knowing if you have determined the parentage of your N. C. Benjamin to see if he could have been son of Ambrose or if you have any information on son of Ambrose named Benjamin or Ambrose's son, Thomas. I find a Reuben in Ky. who could have been his younger son so maybe his sons went on to Ky.?????

(Answer from Richard Grayson:
Sorry, no parentage known on Benjamin.
I wish I had a clue....R.R.G.)

Sincerely,

Cynthia Snider

William Grayson, St. Bees, Cumberland County, England married Mary Gale and on 6 June 1732 purchased land in Spotsylvania Co., Va. near Fredericksburg. This land was confiscated during the American Revolution and after the war was over, John Grayson, then of Whitehaven, Cumberland Co., England applied for restoration of this property.

After seeing several references to these transactions copies were obtained from the Library of Congress and from the Archives at Richmond, Virginia as follow:

From Library of Congress:

A O 13/29: "Mr. Grayson of Whitehaven begs leave to present his most respectful cause to Mr. Coke of Wilmont and having herebefore possessed property in the colony of Virginia he is informed that will be proper for him to state the amount of loss of his said property, which he has in time that it may be attended to, together with the losses of his fellow sufferers. Mr. Grayson wishes to give as little trouble to Mr. Coke of Wilmont as possible and will be much obliged to them for their direction when and of what manner it will be most agreeable to them to be waited on. # 14 Little Town St., April 16, 1782, Whitehaven, Cumberland, England."

When this was included in the Loyalist Claims, Series II, Folio 354-356 it was prefaced by the author as "Claim of John Grayson, late of Fall Hill, Fredericksburg, Va. and now of Whitehaven, Cumberland, merchant, loss 400 acres from which received many offers including American General Mercer. A survey report showed Fall Hill to have been 1 1/2 mile from Fredericksburg Reference A. O. 13-96, Part 1, 24 March 1784 5 pages. AO 12/56, pages 385-87 show John Grayson, late of Virginia 336 Acres St. George's Parish, Spotsylvania County, Va. and 400 Acres. Dated 29 October 1787 and 27 November 1787. Also shows that General Mercer, American General in Revolution was sold this plantation by the U. S.

A. O. 12/99 shows on pages 3221 Fredericksburg rejected the 400 acres 7 June 1783.

22 March 1784 Witness Mr. Robert Loxham of London and Daniel Stephenson, Little Lower St., London, D. Stephenson, agent, Snnthens Ally, Schedule of Confiscated property p. 354, 55, 56.

A. O. 12-99 p. 318 Va. 7 June 1783. Mr. Stevenson said Mr. John Grayson never lived in America in his life, but his father purchased the property in America which was left to him. He said John Grayson was mercer and draper in Whitehaven and was a man of reputation. Since Mr. Grayson was not a refugee the claim was denied. Filed in the Public Record Office, London SR 3138.

John Grayson 29 October 1787 said his father had invested in the American Property prior to the war and the deed is dated 6 June 1732 from Francis Thornton and Mr. Francis Thornton, Jr. executors of James Horsnall to William Grayson, father of claimant which William died in 1768 in Whitehaven. Father left a daughter, Dleanor, who received 1500 lbs in father's estate and has no interest in American property, which estate was sold to Gen. orge Wednen (?) 29 March 1780.

From American Loyalist Claims, by Peter Wilson Goldham, F. A. S. G. tional Geanelogical Society, Washington, D. C. 1980, p. 200+:

"John Grayson, Spotsylvania Co., Va. says that he and his father together had for 50 years owned plantation in St. George's Parish which was confiscated. Memorial, now of Whitehaven, Cumberland, 16 April 1783, London, Claim plantation in Virginia. Evidences: Letter from Claimant 21 November 1787, Whitehaven, enclosing probate of father's will. Deposition 30 November 1787, Liverpool, by James Maury, native and citizen of Virginia, U. S. that he has resided 15 years at Fredericksburg, Va. where he knew claimant and property. (A O 13/29/717-714; 30/425-430. Public Record Office, Kew, Surrey, also available in Library of Congress, Manuscript Div., Chief, Loan Division, Washington, C. C. 20504.

(Corretion from previous page, the reference to the 400 acres should have been to a value of 400 pounds placed on the property by John Grayson).

A. O. 13/30, prefaced with a seal showing half penny sheet, the following statement came from James Maury "late of Fredericksburg, in the state of Virginia in North America, but now of Liverpool in the County of Lancaster in the Kingdom of Great Britain, merchant maketh both that he this deponent is a native and at this time a citizen of Virginia aforesaid and that he this deponent hath resided in Fredericksburg aforesaid for the space of fifteen years or thereabouts and this deponent further saith that he is well acquainted with Mr. Grayson of Whitehaven in the county of Cumberland, mercer, and that he is acquainted with the Virginia property belonging to the said John Grayson situated near Fredericksburgh and that the same was in the month of pune in the year 1786 worth the value of four hundred pounds sterling and that to the best of deponents knowledge the value is of equal of not greater value now. signed James Maury, sworn to in Liverpool 13 November 1787 before Thomas Earle Mayor of Liverpool. Addressed To John Foster, Esq, Office of American Claims, London."

No copy of will of William Grayson was submitted when material was ordered from Library of Congress.

Since this property was located within twelve miles of that of our early John Grayson, is it possible that they were "kin" or at least from the same area in England? If our John of 1700 Lancaster Co., Va. was indeed in America as early as 1687 as was the Thomas of Christ Church, shouldn't we be looking at British records of Thomas and John each having been born about 1660+? I still think they were from either Durham or Cumberland, not Scotland, and I still think the preacher that said that Benjamin came with his ax on his shoulder from below Prince William is more true than that he came from Scotland. If they did come from Scotland, it was probably through Scotland to get away from the Civil Wars in England of that time. Perhaps they, too, were persecuted for religious beliefs. Or perhaps they were on the wrong side in the wars. Any comments?

Dear Dr. Grayson,

I have no idea if you are still around. I am writing in the off chance that you are still around and interested in Grayson genealogy.

I have recently gone through some of my data which had not been filed and came across a letter and other documents sent me last fall by someone in Michigan. He was trying to learn more about an Ambrose Grayson who was living in Henry Co., Tennessee in 1830. This has been a popular name in my Grayson line but I couldn't place this one anywhere. That doesn't mean he doesn't belong.

You will find enclosed everything he sent me. Perchance someone else is interested in this particular person.

Has anything new shown up concerning my line? My line is John Grayson (m. Susannah ?) died 1735/6 Spotsylvania Co., Va. -
Ambrose Grayson (M. Alice James James) ~~xxxxxx~~ died Spotsylvania Co., Va.

Dear Mr. Underwood,

Your name was given to me by Mrs. Joyce Potts of Mangum, Texas. I am sure who may be able to help me. I am researching in AMBROSE GRAYSON. He was in the 17th Civil District of HENRY CO, TENN. (before the 9th district of BENTON CO. in 1836) in BBO.

He was out on the 1840 census of either county, but he was married in a court case in 1843. This case described him as the son-in-law of VERZEY FERRELL.

He also showed in a 640 acre land grant to Thomas Ferrell. Copies of: ① the court case, ② the land grant, ③ deed abstracts and ④ a query which gives some miscellaneous facts and my interest in Andrew Ferguson as ancestor. Versey Ferrell's wife mentioned his daughter, PATSY GRAYSON and his wife, SUSANNAH.

The 1823 deed describes Versey as being from Madison Co, Alabama - Mrs Potts' ancestor, AMBROSE & GRAYSON, married there in 1829 to someone else.

The family lived later in LEON CO, TEX. I've passed from a Madison Co, Alabama history which mentions John Ferguson and C. Chapman are also included (over)

QUERY

Who were the parents of THOMAS R. CHEATHAM who died in Benton Co., Tennessee, in March 1841?

Thomas R. CHEATHAM married Mariah SCARBOROUGH, dau. of David SCARBOROUGH, SR. of Stewart Co., Tenn., about 1830. Appearing on the initial tax list for Benton Co. in 1836 were Thomas CHEATHAM and Vazey FERRELL. Benton Co. was formed out of Humphreys, Stewart, and Henry Counties in 1836. Subjects lived in the 9th District of Benton, formerly the 17th District of Henry. The will of Veazey FERRELL in 1838 gave his 250 acres farm to T. R. CHEATHAM.

1840 Census for Benton Co., Tenn., has Thos. CHEATHAM with 2 m 0/5, 1 m 5/10, 1 m 10/15, 1 m 30/40, and 1 f 20/30. The children were David Franklin, William C., John Jackson, and James Madison, in order of age.

The Chancery Court, State of Tennessee, August Term, 1843, has the case of Maria Cheatham & 4 sons vs Ambrose GRAYSON. GRAYSON is identified as the son-in-law of Veazey FERRELL. The document states that Thos. CHEATHAM departed life March 1841 and was the adopted child of Veazey FERRELL. The court ruled that the farm rightfully belonged to Mariah and her sons.

Mariah married James MCDANIEL 15 Oct 1844 in Benton Co. She died ca 1847. James MCDANIEL is identified as guardian for the minor children of Thos. CHEATHAM, deceased, (John Jackson & James Madison), in a report 8 Dec 1856 and settlement 27 Feb 1858.

Mariah CHEATHAM is named as adm. for estate of R. C. CHEATHAM, deceased, in March Term, 1845. Know nothing about identity of R. C. CHEATHAM. The relationship, if any, of Veazey FERRELL and Thomas R. CHEATHAM IS unknown. No guardianship papers were found in a search in Orange Co., N. C. It is doubtful that a formal adoption occurred as there was no name change. Veazey FERRELL married Susannah SAMMONS in 1796 in Orange Co., N. C.

1810 Census for Orange Co., N. C., has Veazy FERRELL with 1 m 0/10, 1 m 26/45, 1 f 10/16, and 1 f 26/45. He is listed on the same page as the two Wm. CHEATHAMS. The m 0/10 would be the right age for Thomas R. CHEATHAM and the f 10/16 the right age for the wife of Ambrose GRAYSON.

1820 Census for Orange Co., N. C., has Vesa FERRELL with 1 m 10/16, 1 m 45+, 1 f 16/26, and 1 f 45+. He is listed on the same page as Wm. CHEETOM.

1830 Census for Henry Co., Tenn., has Vazey FERRELL with 1 m 50/60 and 1 f 60/70. Also listed is Ambrose GRASON with 1 m 20/30, 1 m 30/40, 2 f 0/5, and 1 f 20/30.

1880 Census for Benton Co., Tenn., has David F. CHEATHAM and gives the birthplace of his father as N. C.

1880 Census for Pettis CO., Missouri, has Wm. C. CHEATHAM and gives the birthplace of his father as N. C.

Most of the above information was supplied by Mrs. Leslie L. (Peggy) HALE, granddaughter of William C. CHEATHAM. Her address is 1624 W. 7th, Sedalia, Mo. 65301.

DAD OFTEN CORRESPONDED with persons bearing our name, so he could plot them onto his genealogy master chart. One year he obtained the address of an attorney who had our surname. Dad wrote him, asking him to supply facts concerning his family's migration.

He received the following reply: "Dear Sir, Your name may be the same as mine, but where I, or any of my family, come from is none of your blankety-blank business."

My dad responded: "Dear Sir, Yep, you are indeed a Darley."

After that they corresponded frequently, and Dad added him and his family to the master chart.

DURING HIS STINT in the Air Force, my brother was bored and homesick in Texas. Grandma suggested that he try to find a long-lost cousin who had settled in the area.

Sure enough, he found a "Robert Reid" listed in the phone book. He was invited to dinner and spent many Sundays with the family. "The Reids are absolutely terrific!" he wrote home. "They had me out for the weekend. Cookouts by the swimming pool—fabulous!"

"Good grief," said Grandma. "Clara married a Robert Mead, not Reid."

The Reids had known all along that my brother had the wrong family. But they, too, had been bored and, as they said, "Pretty soon we felt we practically were cousins."

July 1985

Thanks to all who have contributed articles and letters to the present issue. It has been some time since the last one but items are starting to come in again so maybe the next Newsletter can be in about 3 months. Take particular note of the letters from Mrs. Cynthia Snider regarding her book about the Graysons. The book will be an important volume in your reference library. Welcome to the new members who have sent in their queries and information. I hope you all have been doing good research and that you are going to send it to me soon for the next issue. Please send it typed because that is the way it is most likely to get reprinted. For the record, this issue of the Grayson Newsletter brings to 1,242 the total number of pages published since Volume 1 number 1 in 1977. There is no index. We either need a philanthropist to make an index or a member to tell me how much money we need to collect to get it done. The index should be available in hard copy and also on computer floppy disc. Will some one volunteer to head such a project?

Dear Dr. Grayson:

Your Grayson Family Association advertisement attracted my attention recently as I was reading a back issue of The Genealogical Helper. I have a Grayson line and I wonder if you might be able to give me information.

My great-great-grandfather, Robert Black Deveny, born 1818 in North Carolina, was the son of Robert Black Deveny, Sr. and his wife Susannah Grayson, born 1777, the daughter of Joseph Grayson of Rutherford County, North Carolina. I believe that Joseph Grayson was the son of Benjamin Grayson of Virginia whose parents were Benjamin Grayson and Susannah Monroe. Have you any records that will help me prove who are the parents of the above Joseph Grayson and who his wife was? If not, do you know of anyone who may be able to help me with this lineage?

Is there a cost for being a member of the Grayson Family Association and what kind of newsletter do you put out? I will greatly appreciate any information you can give me.

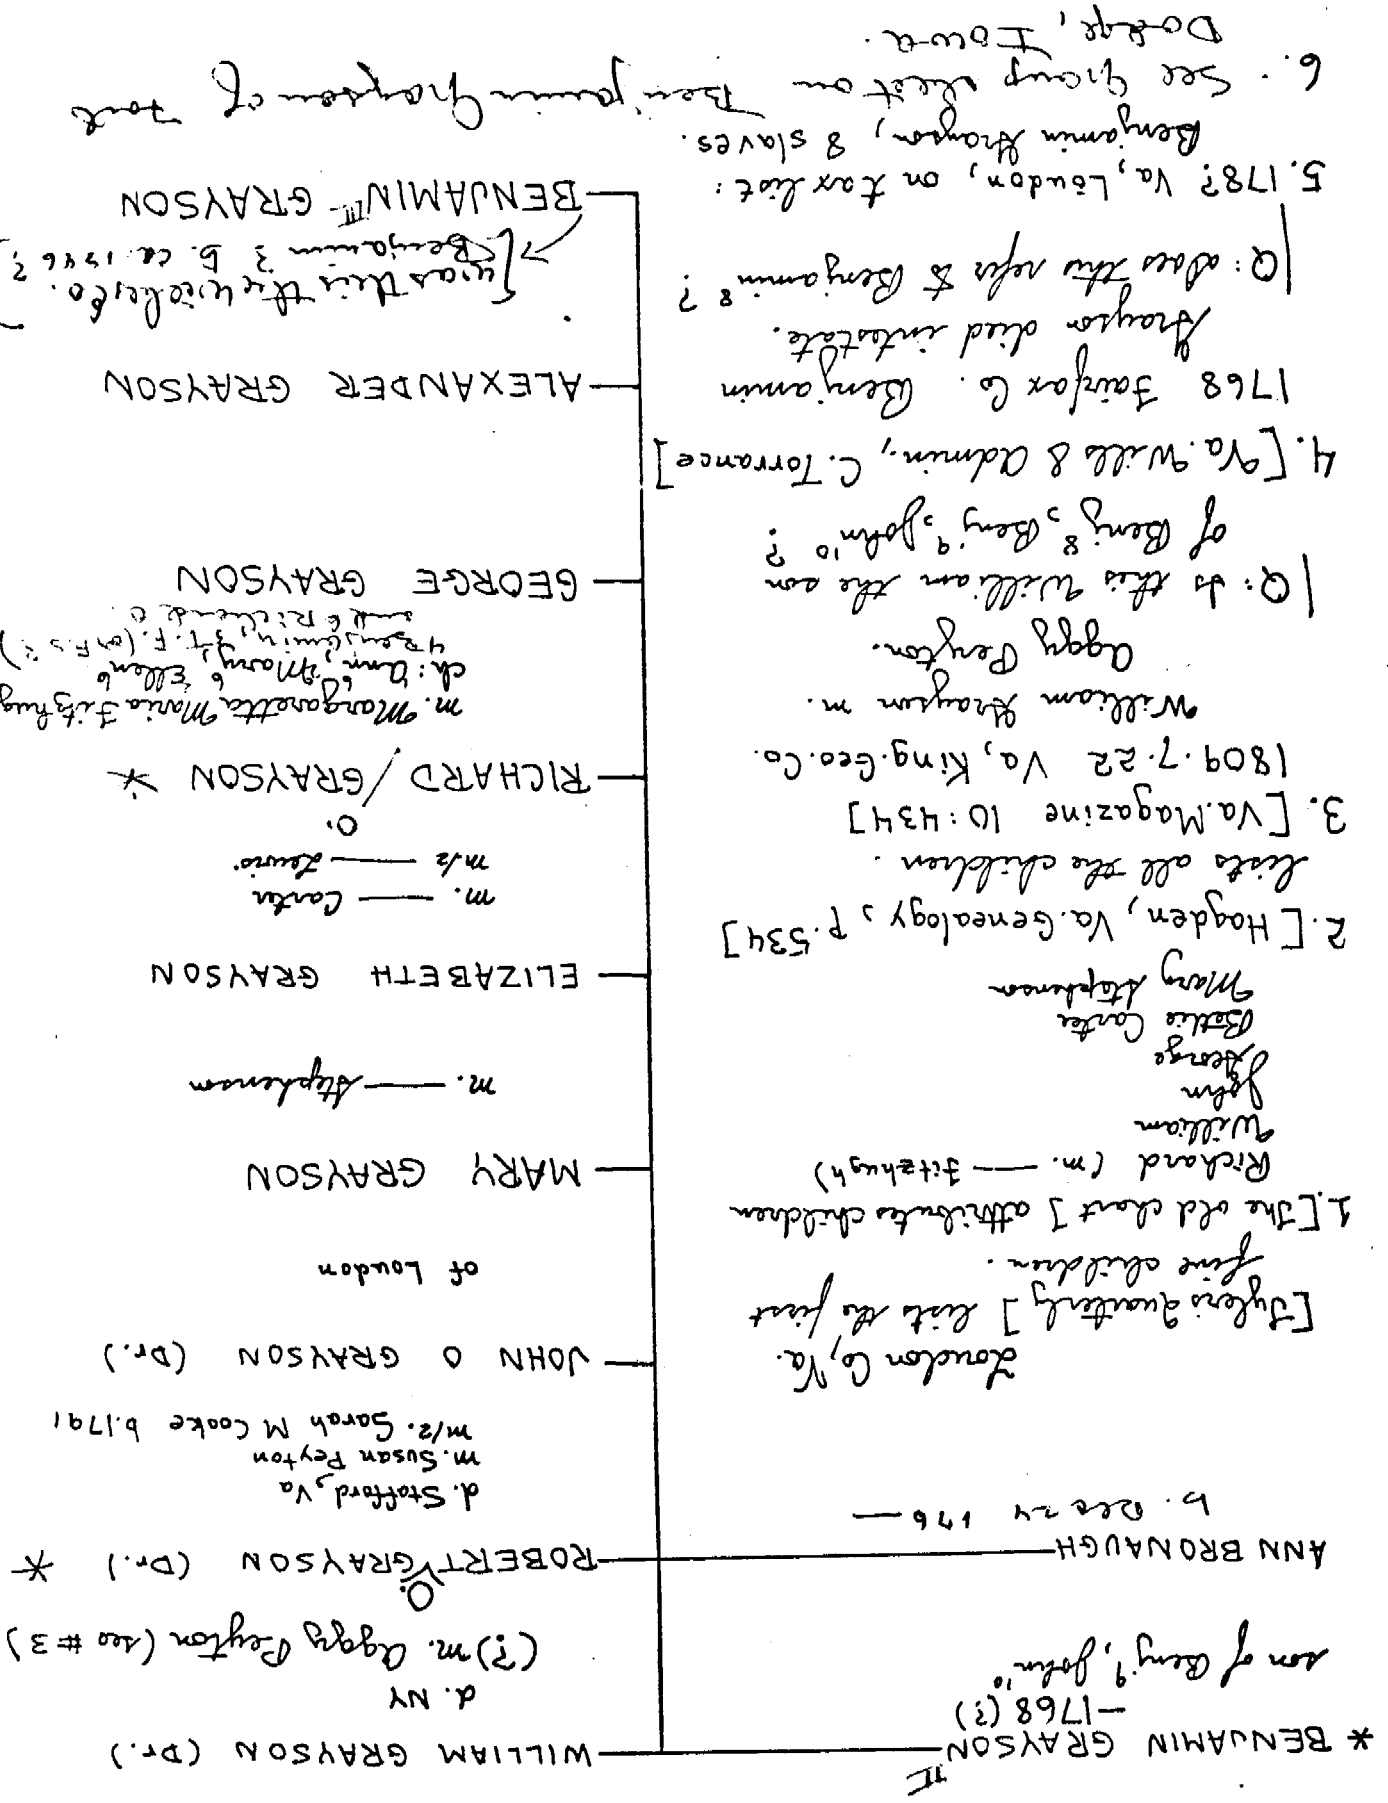

Yours truly,

Harold T. Purvis

Reply: It is true that there was a son of Benjamin Grayson and Ann Bronaugh named Benjamin Grayson that I have long suspected as the father of Benjamin Grayson (of Wilkes co., N.C.) and Joseph Grayson (of Rutherford co., N.C.) However, no one has ever developed any information on Benjamin the son of Benjamin and Ann. Just to refresh everybody's memory, I have reprinted the family sheets of the three Benjamin Graysons and of Joseph Grayson. It's a neat theory and a lot of us would pay a reward to see it proved.

Dear Grayson Descendent:

OUR GRAYSON FAMILY, including Batemans, Catletts, Coles, Boyetts, Harrisons, Hills, Gibsons, and many, many more, a book of over 460 pages including pictures and documents, hard bound in Royal Blue and Gold Buckram, is ready to go to the publishers. This printing, the first, will cost $25.00 plus $2.95 for the first copy and $1.50 for additional copies for mailing for the first 300 orders received. After publication, the price will be $37.50. You are being included in this pre-publication price offer to July 4, 1985. You may send checks or money orders which will be by your receipts. Your books will be ready about three months after I receive the orders for the first 300 copies which I hope will be before October for your delivery.

I have spent twelve years accumulating information for this book, researching and writing. My husband and I lived in our motor home for six months on one research trip and for two summers for six weeks each while going to the court houses and archives where Graysons lived.

The book begins with John and Susanna Grayson, Lancaster Co., VA before 1700 and brings their descendents to and including the present generation for all descendents that we could find on census records, in family Bibles, or anywhere else. It includes the families of their children, Benjamin and Susanna Monroe Grayson, John Grayson, Jr., Ambrose Grayson, Mary Catlett, Susanna Linton, Elizabeth Hill, and Ann Quarles Harrison. It traces the Graysons from Lancaster Co. to Spotsylvania, Culpeper, Augusta, Albemarle, Madison, Hampshire, Montgomery, Wythe, Grayson, Pulaski, and many, many other Virginia counties on to Tennessee, Kentucky, Madison County, AL, Texas and all over the United States. It does not include a link with the English or Scotch Graysons, but does make presumptions based on records as to the origin of the American Graysons.

In addition to the direct line of John and Susanna, others whose origin cannot be proven are included insofar as the author could find documents or census records. Even though you know you may not descend from John and Susanna, you may find your connection in the supplementary Grayson information.

This is the first comprehensive Grayson book known to me, so it may be a once in a live-time chance for Grayson descendents to find their roots.

All orders, even if more than 300, will be included in the pre-publication price of $25.00 if received before July 4. Order for your children or parents or for Christmas or birthday presents. Also, send me names and addresses of anyone else that you think might be interested.

I can still include in the book present generation Graysons if you will send my names, birth, marriage, and death dates before June 10. I can also use pictures and would like any information on your parents and ancestors back to your first known ancestor, if possible.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Snider

Dear Dr. Grayson,

For what it may add to your research in your Benjamin Grayson line, I have just found a new reference in the Virginia Magazine of H. & B. Vol. 92, #4 which sheds new light on Colonel William Grayson. It is an analysis of the estate and guardian records of Benjamin Grayson for his brothers William and Spence and his sister Susanna. Spence Grayson chose as his guardian William Ellzey and the reports of expenditures in several of the years include William Ellzey. Do you suppose he was a brother of Stacy who married the Benjamin, and do you suppose that the Benjamin who married her was a son of the Nicholas who was probably a brother of Ambrose, Benjamin, and John Jr.? I noted in your records of NC that there was a Nicholas there at one point. Or have you found out who your Benjamin was? I just thought it odd that there was such a close relationship with the William Ellzey and Benjamin who was the guardian of William and Susanna (called Sucky) in the guardian papers.

That is an interesting article in that it shows how lavishly Benjamin furnished William during his minority. He was spending money on horses and races, etc. The article is several -20- pages long. That article is also showing that William Grayson was born in 1742 instead of 1736 and goes on to prove it!

My book has been typed and is now "photo" ready for publishing unless I find that your line belongs to John and Susanna.

Incidentally I found a record in West Virginia showing that a Nicholas Grayson represented WV in the Continental Congress meetings. Was your NC Nicholas that one?

I also found a John Grayson marrying on 4 March 1801 one Polly (Mary) Walls in Petersburg, VA. I cannot identify him. Do any of you know who he is?

Anyone who wants a book, let me know, but send no money yet. I am still trying to keep the price under $25. Found another Grayson/Ellzey note. A Thomazen Grayson, son of Ambrose of Hampshire Co., VA purchased from estate of Thomazen Ellzey of Fairfax Co. and was involved in a suit with David Gibson re the land. Believe the Ambrose of Hampshire to have been son of either Thomas or Reuben sons of Ambrose and Alice James.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Snider

Dear Mrs. Snider,

ISAAC GREASON of Orange County, N.C. died 1768 and left a will naming his wife MARGARET and sons JACOB, NICHOLAS, and JOHN. Enclosed are other papers mentioning that family, spelled variously as CREESON, GREESON, CRESON, GRISSOM, GRISOM, GREASON, but never GRAYSON. I have no information about a NICHOLAS GRAYSON who represented West Virginia in the Continental Congress meetings. However the NICHOLAS CRES(S)ON had a will dated 1799 in which only a son Samuel plus wife not named and 6 daughters Catherine, Mary, Eve, Sophia, Margaret, and Philippine are named. Therefore the Nicholas Grayson that you theorize could have had a son Benjamin and could have had brothers Ambrose, Benjamin, and John, jr. is not the same as the Orange County, N.C. NICHOLAS.

In regard to the tantalizing name of WILLIAM ELLZEY, I am sending copies of papers mentioning Thomas Elzey, Lewis Elzey, and William Elzey.

LEWIS ELLZEY left a will dated 1 Oct. 1786, mentions son WILLIAM ELLZEY and daughters including STACY (her first husband was Burgess Berkley--second was BENJAMIN GRAYSON.) the children of STACY GRAYSON were BENJAMIN, SUSAN, SAHA, and ANN. It is of great interest that you have a reference showing that SPENCE GRAYSON chose as his guardian WILLIAM ELLZEY. That would seem to indicate that Spence Grayson might have been related to the Benjamin Grayson who married Stacy Ellzey Berkley. But how? And who was the Benjamin Grayson, son of Stacy and Benjamin? Which Benjamin Grayson was he and where did he go and when was he born? Since the will for Lewis Ellzey is 1786 and Stacy's son Benjamin is listed as one of 4 youngest children and therefore a minor, he cannot be the Wilkes county Benjamin Grayson because BENJAMIN GRAYSON of Wilkes entered land in Wilkes in 1779. In regard to Stacy's husband Benjamin Grayson, could he be the Benjamin Grayson of Wilkes? I doubt this because my ancestor, WREN GRAYSON, sr., was born in 1782 in N.C., the probable son of Benjamin Grayson, sr. of Wilkes and neither Wren nor his brothers Joseph, Jesse, John, or William are mentioned in the Lewis Ellzey will as being sons of Stacy Grayson.

My conclusion, therefore, is that the parentage of Benjamin Grayson, sr., of Wilkes co., N.C. is totally unknown.

Sincerely,

Richard R. Grayson, M.D.

Dear Dr. Grayson:

I have very little to go on as far as the connection of GRAYSON to NAYLOR family via either a Vilanda who md. George Naylor in the 1750-60 era or a Delilah who md. Ignatius Butler ca. 1780. We know neither one of these girl's parents. So this is purely a "gut feeling" mainly because the name Alfred Grayson came down thru the Naylor generations for many years, the 1st one being born 1811 in what is now Bath County, Ky.

The Graysons were into politics and may have been rather prominent in early Kentucky. and a Grayson living on Slate Creek in Bath County near our Naylor family - Robert on 1812 tax records. Also on 1800 Ky. tax list, we find, George Grayson in Mason Co, Reubin & Robert in Logan Co. Robert in Mason and Thomas & Wm. in Christian co.

The Graysons and Naylor could have been just good friends, but I feel there was a family connection to have a name survive so many years.

Mrs. Vivian Bandy, 49 San Miguel Ave. of San Mateo, CA 94403 sent me some on Graysons - her line: A Col. Wm. Grayson md. Eleanor Smallwood and had a son Alfred Wm. Alfred did go to Ky. and md Letitia Breckenridge. Col. Wm. Grayson was Aide-de-Camp to Gen. Geo. Washington during the Rev. War. Also a Capt. Wm. Grayson, 1st cousin to Col. Wm., had a son Thomas. Her line is a Benjamin Grayson who was the son of Thomas. Recent Grayson data unearthed is as follows: In Aug. of 1780 in Montgomery and Botetort Counties, VA. the following persons were tried for misbehavior and treason against the State: Robert, John & Wm. Graysons. Must be the ones we find in Ky. on 1800 tax list. Can they be related to Capt. Wm. & Col. Wm. Grayson!!!!

Geo. Naylor died 1805 Ky.
md. Vilanda _____

Ignatius Butler b. 1755 Eng.

Paul named children: Vilanda, Ignatius, George, DELilah, ALFRED GRAYSON and Paul Jr. At that time, children were usually named for grandparents or great grandparents & this is my only clue as to who the grandmother's may have been as I cannot find marriage of either couple.

Sorry this was so long and drawn out, but it is difficult to explain my reasoning. Family legend includes the Grayson name but where. Do you have any information in your files that would give me a clue.

Dear Mrs. Clarke:

Mrs. L. P. Clarke

I do research at the County Courthouse, Grayson County, Va. The Clerk of Court gave me your recent letter for reply.

Grayson County, Va. was formed from Wythe County in 1792, and Wythe was formed from Montgomery in 1789. Grayson was named for

William Grayson, a brilliant, well-educated man who not only was educated here but in England as well, went into the practice of law at Dumfries, Va. and married Miss Eleanor Smallwood. This came at a time when tension was building with England prior to the American revolutionary war. It was with his becoming Captain of the Cadets that Grayson launched his remarkable military career. He was commissioned Lieutenant Colonel and Aide-de-Camp to General Washington in 1776 and promoted to Colonel the following year. and his achievements go on and on. In the House of Delegates, and to the Continental Congress. He was termed an anti-Federalist. . . . Well, all in all it is a subject for a book really. Grayson County was named for this distinguished man who was one of the first two United States senators. But I doubt that he ever set foot on Grayson County soil. He died in 1790.

A search through the indexes of our court records revealed no one of the name Grayson as having ever lived here. nor do I find it in our current telephone directory.

You may be able to trace the Grayson name through census indexes for counties of the state and other states as well. If I can be of further help to you let me know.

Sincerely yours,

James P. Stamber

Grayson: william Grayson was a native of Spotsylvania came to Albemarle some time before the Revolutionary war. In 1764 he bought land on the head of Mechum's River from Speaker John Robinson, who was then selling off the immense tracts in Rockfish valley, pat. by his brother-in-law, John Chiswell. Having sold this property a few years after, he purchased from Gamaliel Bailey and Obadiah Martin at what was then known as the Little D. S., where the old Richard Woods road forks with that passing through Batesville, and where his descendants have been living ever since. In 1804 he sold a small parcel at this place to William Simpson, who there established a tanyard that for many years went by his name, and afterwards by the name of Grayson, and that was one of the most noted landmarks in that neighborhood. Simpson in 1818 sold it to Joseph Grayson, a grandson of william. william died in 1829 having attained the remarkable age of ninety-seven years. His wife Ann, daughter of Thomas Smith, and his children were John, Thomas, Martha, Elizabeth, the wife of Joseph Sutherland, and Susan, the first wife of Issac wood, and secondly of a Tomlin. Joseph Grayson married Rhoda, dau. of Daniel White, and died in 1867. His children were Thomas, who married Mary dau. of John Jones, Ann, the wife of James H. A BRIEF OF WILLS AND MARRIAGES IN MONTGOMERY AND FINCASTLE
COUNTIES, VIRGINIA, 1733-1831

By Anne L. Worrell , G.P.C.

Dedicated to : Colonel William Preston Chapter D.A.R.

" Montgomery County has the distinction of being one of the oldest counties of western Virginia. It was a part of the vast territory of Augusta, and, for a short period, formed a portion of the short lived county of Fincastle, which was subdivided into the counties of Montgomery, Washington and Kentucky.

Upon its formation in 1776, Montgomery contained 12,000 sq. miles, and extended as far west as the Ohio River.

On January 20, 1775, the Freemen of Fincastle, including inhabitants of all Montgomery County assembled at the Lead Mines, and made a declaration, which was the precursor of the Declaration of Independence made by Congress, July 4, 1776.. This declaration was the first made in America. "

THAT'S ALL.....

I have copied what I could read and this is the general idea -

" August 1780 "

(At a meeting of the Justices of Montgomery County and Botetourt for the Examination of Col. Wm. Ingles of Montgomery Co. who stands charged with being guilty of Treason against the Commonwealth.

Present: Wm Preston, Col Christian, Col. James Robertson, John Taylor, Capt. Thompson, Capt. Dan Tregg, Capt. James Barnette Capt. Grey, and six others. "

The same paragraph was written after each man on trial and there were many listed. One man was sent to the Lead Mines another prison, several old men sent sons in their place.

Whereupon the witnesses were examined as well in Behalf of the Commonwealth as for the Prisoner. Usually not proven of charges and the Court required large Bonds of some men.

Page 73-- "Robert Grayson is also charged for the same offense and witnesses being sworn were examined as well for the Commonwealth as the Prisoner. Grayson enlist into the Continental Army till the last of Dec. 1781. He took the Oath according and as long as he serves his property be protected. "

Page 74 " John and -- and-- stand charged with being guilty of Treason--The Court is of the opinion that the charge is---?? "

Page 77 (Wm Grayson charged as the rest. He Voluntarily enlists himself as a soldier in the Continental Army until the last day of Dec. 1781. upon which him and his property be protected while he behaves well. "

I found in the LDS Family Registry that you are representative of the Grayson surname organization. I am researching the Grayson family; my Gr.Gr. Grandmother was Mary Grayson, b. 1780. She married Elisha Stuart, c. 1801; they are parents of my Gr. Grandfather John Stuart. The Stuarts and the Graysons are very intertwined, so much so, that I haven't figured it out yet. My John Stuart married Sarah (Sallie) Bowie. Another John Stuart married Sarah Fulkerson, both natives of N. Carolina and their daughter Sarah married Thomas Grayson, Logan County, KY 1795 and they had 13 children. It is believed that this Thomas was born 1770 VA, the son of Edwin Grayson and that Edwin and two brothers came from England in the middle 1700's and settled in Virginia. Edwin married Anna Cavendish in Virginia. Thomas moved to Logan Co., KY when quite young and later to Miss (c. 1812) and then to Louisiana.

There is quite a bit of information on the Graysons of Louisiana in a book entitled Caldwell Parish in Slices by Ted Wood.

I would appreciate hearing from you about the family organization and any other information or suggestions about my research.

Sincerely,

Martha Bridger Brown

Dear Dr. Grayson:

My book is being typed in final form for printing and I thought that before I put it out, I would check with other descendents to see if I get disagreement or agreement on some factors. They are:

1. By 1820 there were at least the following "lines" of Graysons in the U. S.:
 - a. William who came to U. S. in ship Safety in August, 1635 age 20 Hotten's Lists of Immigrants to Va. p. 123
 - b. Richard Greyson on VA land patents, Vol. 1, p. 776, patent for 400 a. Elizabeth City Co. for transporting 8 persons.

 - a. A. Greenup Co., Ky. 1810, Alfred, Fayette Co., Ky 1810, Benjamin, Fairfax, Northumberland, Prince William, Va., and Nelson Co., KY and Mercer Co., Ky as descendents of Benjamin and Susanna Monroe. Also David of Prince William, Dr. of Washington, D. C., Frederick W., Bullitt Co., Ky, George of Mason Co., Ky, John (Robinson) Chatham Co., Ga., Spence, Prince Wm., Robert of Logan Co. 1800, Robert O. of Frederick Co., Va., William of both Loudon and Fairfax as from same Benjamin.
 - b. Ambrose, Wythe, Ambrose, Hampshire, James, Grainger Co., Tn and Goochland Co., Ky, John Fayette, Culpeper, Montgomery Va. (Ky for Fayette), John, Jefferson Co., Ky, Thomas, Hopkins and Logan Co., William of Barren, Fayette, and Woodford, Ky, Reuben of Logan Co., Ky and Montgomery Co., Va, Thomas of Spotsylvania, Culpeper, Montgomery, and Ky., William of first Spotsylvania, then Culpeper, then Madison, the Page Co., Joel, and all the Hampshire and Madison Co. Va Graysons from Ambrose. Also the Benjamin/Mary Pruit of Madison Co. Al.

2. c. From John, Jr. son of John and Susannah who d. Orange Co., Va 1754 William of Albemarle, Robert of Augusta, Betetourt, then Montgomery Co., Va., who had son Charles of Montgomery then of Washington Co., Tn.,
3. Squire of Cherokee Co. ancestor of some of the Al. Graysons and the Oklahoma Graysons from Indian heritage.
4. The North Carolina and Marion and Monroe Co. Tn. Graysons from the William of Onslow Co., N. C. 1770. Who was he? He was not son of either Ambrose or John Jr. or Benjamin children of first John and Susannah. Was he a brother of Henry or was he an immigrant? Dr. Grayson, have any of your line decided who he is? I cannot tie him to my line, so have not included him or any of your line in my book so far. If someone in your line wants to write a chapter for my book, I will include it, but cannot take time to do it myself and still meet publication deadline.

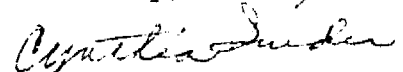

My book includes only those descending from John and Susannah, but mentions these early, unidentified ones with their earliest records.

The Abraham Grayson of Arkansas turned out to have been a colored freeman in his 1700's in 1850. Many, many of the Virginia 1850 Graysons were also colored.

I need to hear from any descendent of the Ambrose of Bedford Co., Va. the Ambrose of Mississippi, and any other Thomas, Ambrose, or Reuben descendent. Also, would like information from any descendents of the three early Williams, the one from Madison Co., Va, the one from Albemarle Co., and the one from Onslow Co., N. C. Even though the evidence points to the Madison Co. Va. William being Ambrose's son, I am not positive.

P. S. If anyone has an unidentified Grayson, please let me know so I can check against my boxes and boxes of references.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Snider

Would like to hear from any descendents to know if you agree or disagree with the above.

Dear Dr. Grayson,

Received your most welcome newsletter in December 1984,

I am sorry to report that a GRAYSON researcher, Dorothy McCoy of Arkansas City, KS died this past year. Dorothy's mother was Lenore May GRAYSON, granddaughter of Henry GRAYSON, b 1808-1811, d 1862.

Dr. Grayson, I would like to correspond with people who have experience with using a computer for filing and researching genealogy. I have a KAYPRO computer with a CP/M system. I have the MicroPro software, WordStar, DataStar, etc. I am considering purchasing genealogy software by Quinsept Inc. called Family Roots. Comments and suggestions would be appreciated.

Keep up the informative newsletter!

Sincerely,

Alan L. Ward

Grayson Descendents:

I received today several copies of Spotsylvania Co., VA records which I had heard about and seen summarized in the Grayson Newsletter, but had never seen. They throw a different light on some of our ideas especially on the ancestors of Alice James. Of particular interest is the will of Stephen Sharp. There is no Hoke Grayson mentioned, but the word that some may have thought was Hoke, is indeed Alice. It is spelled Else. Also in that document the Mary that was reported as Jones is without a doubt James. Therefore, the heirs of Stephen Sharp are Alice Grayson, Mary James, Elizabeth James, and John Grayson. Else is shown two places in the will. At one place the scroll before her name could be Ms in front of it, but the other place where it says the remainder of the estate to be equally divided among the four aforementioned: Else Grayson, Mary James and Elizabeth James, and John Grayson is very plain. This document was dated 12 March 1735 which would indicate that Ambrose and Alice had only John at that time. This will helps place the birthdates of Ambrose's other children to all be after 1735 and before 1743.,

I also received a copy of the only document filed in the Spotsylvania Co. deed or probate records on 3 March 1729. There was reported in the Grayson Newsletter that a deed existed of that date which showed Susannah as the guardian of John and Ambrose. The document that is really of record on 3 March 1729 is the deed where John and Susannah deeded 200 acres to Ambrose. The Spotsylvania clerk said she searched all the records and there is nothing filed there showing Susanna as the guardian of John and Ambrose. This purported document, the guardian one, had me confused for a long time. It had made me think there was another John Grayson who died before 1729.

Another document that I received was the estate settlement for both Ambrose and John Grayson. Each had many slaves, and it was of interest to note that none of those of Ambrose were the same names as those of John which tells me that John's widow, Susannah, was probably still alive and using John's slaves when Ambrose died in 1743.

I also received a copy of pages 429-30, Will Book A which lists Ambrose and Alice Grayson's children in this order: John Ambrose Benjamin Thomas Alice William Susannah Ann and Reuben Grayson each part being a ninth of 106.18 pounds. There were not enough slaves for each child to have one plus giving the widow her dower. There were nine slaves and nine children and the widow received three mulatto servants. The names of the slaves were: Cornwall, Isaac, Frank, Gotor, Daphen, Lattice, Lilly, Daphne (child), Lucy, Will, and Elizabeth. The value of Ambarose's estate was 301.14 pounds plus his real estate. Francis Taliaferro signed the inventory of both Ambrose and John. John's estate was valued at 198.17 pounds. Both exclusive of real estate.

I think the Stephen Sharp will proves that Alice was his daughter as she is listed as an heir. Most wills leaving to someone other person than an heir mentions the relationship. Any comments.?

GRAYSON NEWSLETTER EDITOR AND SUBSCRIBERS:

I hate to bring up controversial subjects concerning Graysons, but for years I have been under the impression that the John Grayson of Spotsylvania Co., VA who died in Montgomery Co., VA in 1803 was married to Barbara Burdyne. This was based on the will of Richard Burdyne, Culpeper Co. who named a daughter Barbara Gresham and on the fact that deeds signed by John contained the name of Barbara as his wife.

While I was traveling in 1982 on a six months research tour, I was researching in the Columbia, S. C. state archives and ran across a probate record for Reginald Burdyne, brother of above mentioned Barbara who m a Gresham. And who was his executor but John GRISHAM Sr. Now this casts doubt in my mind as to who this John Gresham was who was so close to Barbara Burdyne's brother. Was he, indeed a different person than the John Grayson mentioned above? If so, who did John Grayson marry?

Many years ago some of the Madison Co., AL Graysons, including a Miss Margaret Grayson who lives two blocks from me here in Oakland employed a Mrs. Grayson, descendent of the Benjamin line, and she researched in the VA counties. Her determination of the wife of our John Grayson was Barbara Bibb. There were Bibb's living in Madison Co., Al. near the John Grayson who married Sallie Carter, but I have no other information about the Bibbs.

Can anyone shed any light on this matter? I have a copy of Richard Burdyne's original will and the name of the person Barbara married is spelled Greshem. The John who administered the estate of Reginald Burdyne spelled his name Grisham. I have sent to S. C. archives for the will of John Grisham, Sr., but have not received it. They were in Abbeville Dist., S. C. as early as 1878 along with Hannah Shotwell and Nathaniel and John Burdyne.

P. S. Has anyone seen the original of the will of Stephen Sharpe who mentions Mary Jones, Elizabeth James, John and Hoke Grayson? Could the Jones have been James, and if so, isn't it very likely that Stephen Sharpe was the father of Alice James since these four were probably her children and since she was a widow of John James and not long married to John Grayson, wouldn't it have been logical for her father to leave to her children?

Sincerely,

Mrs. M. J. Snider

Hopefully some of you can help establish or disprove the conclusions I have drawn concerning the early Graysons. My conclusions are based on the "preponderance of the evidence" from records. I am trying to sort out and identify all the early ones before my book goes to press. Your comments will be appreciated. Below is how I identify those I can find:

1. John, Lancaster Co. the immigrant, and he alone the immigrant
2. Thomas, John, Jr. (d. Orange Co., 1755), Benjamin, Ambrose, Ann, Susannah, Mary children of John #1.
Thomas of Deal of Kent not ever shown on American records except when he sold father's land.
* John Jr. m Martha and had at least sons Robert and William (m Eleanor Sanford) and possibly a son who married Frances Hurt, or a grandson who married her. Moses may have been his son m Frances Hurt.
Benjamin who married Susanna Monroe was not first in America, but was brother of Ambrose and his descendents are documented in Va. Hist. Magazines and by Lund Washington.??
Ambrose had children John (Barbara Burdyne), Thomas (of record in will of Ambrose, in lease of John, on petition in 1767 in Augusta Co., VA along with William, in Montgomery Co., VA in 1774-1778 and fought in American Revolution, descendents unknown unless Hampshire Va. Graysons are from him), William of Albemarle Co., VA., Benjamin who may have been the one in Madison Co., Al. or the father of Ambrose and John F. of Henry Co., Tn. and Marshall Co., AL, (or may have been the Benjamin ancestor of Wren,) and Reuben who was in Logan Co., Ky in 1800, plus the daughters, Alice, Susannah, and Ann about which I have nothing.

Also, missing is identity of Nicholas of Spotsylvania Co., Va 1735 and Hoke of 1750 era in Sharpe will. Hoke may have been a nickname for Ambrose since other of Alice James/Grayson's children were listed.

Would appreciate hearing comments, disagreements, or agreements with the above.

Dear Doctor Grayson,

As a result of the information contained in Volume 6, Number 1 issue of your Newsletter, the family of Reuben Harrison Grayson have asked that I send to you a short bio on him.

I'm also sending the letters from three of his daughters (Brady, Carrie, and Lavina) which contain their recollections of the events surrounding the loss of the family farm. These recollections do not coincide with the material contained in the Sanford Frank Grayson Biography. It is their recollection that Sanford was not a successful farmer, and as a result of his inability between 1927 and 1932/33 to generate enough cash to pay the taxes on the property, it was lost in a tax sale. When Reuben turned the farm over to him it was entirely free and clear. To his credit and his efforts, however, he was able to re-acquire the farm. There is some feeling that this was self-serving on his part since the other heirs were not informed.

When Reuben moved off the farm in 1927 to take office in Corning he did not relish the idea, but followed the advise of his older brother (Sanford).

I'm persuaded, based on my conversations with my Grandfather (Reuben) that he always regretted the fact that he had not stayed on the farm. He didn't believe that living in town was the best way to raise a family. The Clay County Courthouse was destroyed in a fire in the 1950's and many of the old records were destroyed. According to James Grayson the farm was lost for the sum of $1100 in unpaid taxes and acquired by the Allmindinger or Bauschlicher family sometime during the Depression. It's value, whatever that might have been, was determined in the re-sale to Sanford which occurred within a very short time after its acquisition. According to Reuben he was not a signatory on the deed, and since he was one of the heirs at Jame's death, felt he had might have been cheated of his inheritance.

I don't see any value in publishing these suppositions, since they cannot be supported by evidence, and would appreciate your good judgement in how you want to treat this information and the letter itself.

For your information Sanford's widow Leona still has title to the property, but according to my mother the farm is in poor shape. It has been farmed on a rental basis for several years by a neighbor, and most of the trees have been cut and sold. I have not visited the farm in over 40 years.

Publication of the Reuben Harrison biography in your next Newsletter will be appreciated.

REUBEN HARRISON GRAYSON

Reuben Harrison Grayson, the third son of James Thomas and Rachel was born in 1888 and inherited from his father the love of farming. He married Tena Hildebrand in 1907.

When James Thomas lost his wife Rachel in 1922 he asked his son Reuben to operate the farm as he has lost all interest in maintaining the farm and livestock. The farm at that time consisted of 80 acres and had a nice woodland pasture, a neglected orchard, and very little good cotton and corn land. Reuben spent the next several years farming the land in the traditional way. In 1925 he switched from cotton and corn and converted to rice farming. This was done with the co-operation of the next door neighbor, Creek and Arent who supplied the water. This change was an immediate success, and a bumper crop generated enough cash to allow for the construction of a brand new barn. In those days farmers placed importance on barns before houses. Reuben paid off the mortgage, taxes and since his father James had died in June 1925, he also placed a sum of money, which he felt was his fathers share of the profits, in the bank.

In 1926 Reuben was elected City Marshal. This created a need to travel between the farm and the city of Corning to perform his job as Marshal. On the advise of his older brother Sanford, he was persuaded to move from the farm to town, and his sister Edna (who had lost her husband that year) moved onto the family farm, with Sanford becoming the operator on a daily basis. The farm was debt-free at that time with all taxes paid.

Reuben never again acted as a full time farmer. He served as City Marshal, Constable and worked for the Missouri Pacific Railroad. He continued to maintain a garden on his property, and always produced excellant crops until the year of his death in 1968. His love of the land never diminished, and he was deeply hurt when the family farm was lost (as were many farms) during the middle of the Great Depression. The re-acquisition of the farm, with no interruption in occupancy means that in 1987 it will become a centennial farm with 100 years of Grayson history imbedded in its soil.

Reuben Harrison Grayson was an honest and truthful man who worked hard to provide for his family. He taught his children to give an honest days work for an honest days wages. All of his children (with the exception of the infant Virgil) are still alive, and each of them cherish the memories of the man, his compassion and love of his fellow man and in particular the way that he made each of them feel important to him.

Dear Dr. Grayson,

I received your address from Barbara Galipp of Dallas, Texas. I had written to her because she is a Grayson descendent as I am--and I was hoping we could connect our lines. At present it seems that we are not working on the same family--but time and effort may prove that we are, of course.

I am interested in learning more about the Newsletter you publish; will you please send me a copy and information about price.

I am enclosing a pedigree chart and outline of some of the Grayson/Stuart connections, from Va.-Ky.-Miss. to La. There are so many John Stuart's and Sarah Grayson's and marriages between the two families that it is very confusing--I need all the help I can get. Am looking forward to seeing a copy of the newsletter.

Sincerely,

REPLY: Mrs. Brown has added an important link in our search for Grayson immigrants and other ancestors. No one heretofore has known that the father of Thomas Grayson whose sons included Andrew Jackson Grayson, the "Audabon of the West", was an Edwin Grayson of England. We all hope that Mrs. Brown will send us a complete history of Edwin for the next Newsletter. Meanwhile I am reprinting 3 pages of material from Newsletters of 1977 on Thomas Grayson and his children contributed by Leon Brooks.

...R.R.G.

I am excited with your idea of a Grayson newsletter, and let me express my thanks to you for the effort you are going to.

As I had expressed previously my "missing link" is the father and mother, brothers, etc. of Thomas Grayson b. 1770 d. 1839.

He first appears in the record in Logan County, Kentucky. There were several Graysons there at the same period - namely Rueben, who owned property next to Thomas. Since Rueben is a relatively unusual name and it crops up in several Grayson sources, it may have significance (Ambrose b. England 1680 - d. Spots County, Va., Sept. 6, 1742 m. Alice Y. Lists a son John and a son Ambrose; mentions other children not named. They may be Benjamin, William, Alice, Susannah, Ann, Rueben and Thomas).

Also in Logan & Christian both of which were formed from the same county in 1800 were Robert Grayson and William Grayson.

The info that my Thomas was born in Virginia comes from the family bible which does not show his parents or brothers and sisters. Below I will give info on this Thomas and his children. I list his children since some of them have unusual names and may give some clue as to who they were named for.

Grayson, Thomas - b. Jan. 1, 1770 in Va. d. Sept. 14, 1839 in La. m. August 24, 1795 in Logan County, Kentucky from Logan Co. Records. (The family bible gives August 18, 1795) to Sarah Stuart, daughter of John and Sarah Fulkerson Stuart.

d. After Civil War he was assassinated by Federal Troops in Ouachita Parish, Louisiana.

As a matter of interest Andrew Jackson Grayson (#12 above) went to California in 1846 with his wife and few months old child. He began from St. Louis with Donner (of fame) but broke off with this group before they reached California (fortunately). He became a famous naturalist and was known as the Audubon of the West. His original paintings (birds) and other notes, etc. are at the Bancroft Library University of California, Berkley. His biography is soon to be published by the University of California Press. His biographer is Mrs. Lois M. Stone of Berkley, California.

I don't know if you have the name of Robert Capell, 630 Olympia Road, Pittsburg, Pennsylvania 15211. One of his ancestors is Emiline Capell who married Young W. Grayson in 1829.

Young W. Grayson d. March 16, 1846 in Marengo Co., Alabama leaving wife Emeline and children James (age 17) Horatio 15, Susan Rebecca 13, Charles 11, Elizabeth 9, Sarah 7, Martha 4, and Alexander 2.

Robert Cappell says he has other records of the Cappell and Grayson lines and is particularly interested as to what happened to them when and if they left Alabama.

Looking forward to NL #3.

Sincerely,

Leon E. Brooks

No. 7, page 10.

Leon Brooks of Shreveport, La. has an answer to a previous query as follows:

Your Item #8 in Newsletter #5 also asked about the Grayson for which Grayson, Louisiana was named. The Lineage is given below and as a matter of interest the Alfred M. (2.) and A.J. of California were brothers.

"Grayson, Louisiana named after W. B. Grayson"

1. Thomas Grayson md. Sarah Stuart
b. 1770 d. 1839 b. 1779 d. 1833

Oldest son of Thomas and Sarah was

2. Alfred M. md. Eliza Ann Bowden
b. 1796 d. 1835 d. 1855

5th of 8 children of Alfred M. and Eliza Ann was

3. Wiley Blount Grayson
b. November 3, 1829 Caldwell Parish, Louisiana
Planter, Mason, Tax Collector
Prominent in Caldwell Parish
Married Josephine Boatner in 1851. They had 12 children.

This must be the Wiley Blount that Grayson, Louisiana was named after. My Great Grandfather was named Wiley Blount, and was a brother to Alfred M.

Recall that in Newsletter number 5 are listed 8 place names of Grayson. Leon Brooks has a 9th Grayson place: it is Grayson, California. Leon has sent a 6 page speech that was given in 1960 commemorating this town, which I will abstract here.

Andrew Jackson Grayson came to the San Joaquin Valley in 1849. The town was founded in 1850 and first named Graysonville. It was a part of Tuolumne county until 1854 when Stanislaus County was carved out of the western portion of it. Andrew Jackson Grayson, later known as the Audubon of the Pacific was appointed a Lieutenant in the Mexican War in 1846 shortly after he and his wife and son arrived in Calif. from La. In 1867, his only child, a son age 22, was murdered "by a band of cut throats at San Blas. Andrew Jackson Grayson died of a fever Aug 17, 1869 and was buried at Mazatlan. In 1873 his remains were moved to Col. See Newsletter # 3 & 4 for more on this Grayson.

GRAYSON GENEALOGY NEWSLETTER
VOLUME 6 NO. 3

MARCH 1986

There are 37 active correspondents and members of the Grayson Family Association who receive this Newsletter. There are probably an equal number of people who have at one time or another been on the mailing list and then have become inactive. This must mean that there are a great many Graysons in the country to have so many amateur genealogists to be so persistent. On some of my other lines, for example, I have found no one at all who is interested in those names.

The present Newsletter will not have pages numbered to follow the last issue because changing the page numbers of Mrs. Snider would be confusing.

Therefore, the first 3 pages are un-numbered. These are from the new book by our member Cynthia Snider. If any of you are descended from any of the Graysons listed in her index, you will want to order a copy of her book. Ordering information is on the 2nd page. It is a handsome hard backed book full of information with a good index.

The remainder of the Newsletter is from our member Betty L. Clarke. This material summarizes Grayson genealogy which has appeared in previous Newsletters in a convenient form. The 4th un-numbered page is her index to the remainder of the Newsletter.

Dear Subscriber's,

For my convenience I have made family group charts, from the Grayson Newsletters, you can see there are many blank spaces that need to be filled in and probably many errors. There is no assurance from me that the information is correct. There are many discrepancies within the different families. I have copied from the Newsletters, Tyler's Qtly, Wm./Mary Qtly and every source that I could lay my hands on. I do not own any documents other than what has been published in Dr. Grayson's material.

I find all the related and or allied families to the Early Va. Grayson neglected, there are so many clues and we all need to help in this area. The Orphan Records, I find Very few need to be researched, there must be many of these records in courthouses. There may have been a Special Court of Probate for all our Orphans as the Guardian had to account for the estate every year.

The name Grayson itself is a mess, and I'm sure there are many records under other spellings that I hope you will include with research in the future, actually almost any Gr-----.

I have omitted many dates because I cannot find any proof and some cannot be right if one assumes that girls married young and most men around 21 .

I realize subscribers know to prove ones lineage that you must prove every generation with a document. I personally do not want someone elses grampa, I do want to know for sure who went to N.C., and all of N.C. group sheets I am beginning to unravel for the next issue.

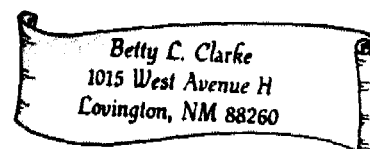

The names of issue were not selected at random, you can be assured: Father's name, Mother's maiden name or inital, Grandfather, Guardian, Godfather, favorite brother.

I appreciate the years of research by some and Newsletter's that got me involved in my Grayson line.

Please prove all mistakes you find in the next Newsletter so we can all correct our group sheets. Thank you.

GROUP SHEET INFORMATION

The charts are indexed according to Name, John's are all together. Why? Because I have spent most of my time looking , if John has a son named Benj., then look under Benj's and maybe he will be there. You will find many headings with little information, that is because I dunno who they are or where they belong. Please prove if possible if you know. My Sr's and Jr's don't really mean a thing since we don't know our immigrant's anyway, just a way for me to try and keep a few folks straight.

I am enclosing some new maps. My Bledsoe line were neighbors to John and Susana S., In 1706 the Grayson's signed a deed in Northumberland Co., so the Graysons certainly are not my only research in Va.

I have tried to stop all lines around 1830-60, most of us know who , after that time period, besides no one wants my grandmother who died in the 1960's.

Early English writing is difficult to decipher (especially by some uninterested Clerk), our immigrant, Charls, Charles Clarke has no e on the Parish 1715 English Church record. I am coping a few other cuties: feconde=second, Gofpell=Gospel, Feverall=several, Englifhe=English, foalbe=shall be,, an e on nearly every word. Nearly all F's were S's. T's, H's and L's most diffult to make out . I believe the misspelled names ties the family together for awhile. Robert in Mont. Co. was always misspelled, therefore I believe he probably was a cousin and from what branch I haven't discovered. Thank you and Please include these spellings:

GRAYSON, GREYSON, GRASON, GRESSUM, GRESSOM, GRESHUM, GRESHAM, GRISHOM, GRASSOM, MAYBE SOME: GREGGSON, GRAHAM

THE MARYLAND ANCESTRY OF JAMES MONROE.

By MONROE JOHNSON

Students of Maryland history and genealogy will be interested to learn that the Monroe family of Westmoreland County, Virginia, from which James Monroe was descended, had its origin in Maryland. So, if Maryland cannot, like her sister State of Virginia, boast of the honor of being the mother of the fifth President, she can at least claim to be the great-grand-mother of that distinguished statesman.

President Daniel C. Gilman of Johns Hopkins University, who wrote the first comprehensive biography of President Monroe, frankly admitted that he had not been successful in tracing the pedigree of his subject. President Gilman did, however, refer to an old statement, which has since been found to be erroneous, that the first of the family in America was one Andrew Monroe, who came to Virginia after the defeat of the Royalist army in England, in which he held the rank of major. Based on this statement, the author of the Monroe Doctrine was, until recent years, thought to have come of Cavalier ancestry—the origin commonly, but mistakenly, attributed to the leading Virginia families. While Doctor Gilman was making his fruitless search among the Virginia archives for a description of the Monroe immigrant, a fairly complete account of him, strange to relate, lay hidden in the old Maryland records, directly under the eyes of the searcher.

More recent researches have disclosed that Andrew Monroe, the great-great-grandfather of President Monroe, arrived in Maryland about 1637, settling on Kent Island, where the turbulent William Claiborne had established a trading post several years before the Ark and the Dove, bearing Lord Baltimore's colonists, dropped anchor off Saint Mary's. The records are silent regarding the immigrant's European antecedents, but, since the name Monroe is a variant of the Scottish clan name Munro, he must have come from Scotland, or perhaps from Ulster in Ireland. Like many another Scottish Highlander of that day, he was unable to write and made his mark, when his signature was required.

The colonial records of Maryland show that Monroe commanded a pinnace, a small vessel, under Cuthbert Fenwick, general agent for Lord Baltimore. But when Richard Ingle, who has been variously described as a "pirate" and a "patriot," according to the political views of the historian, declared for Parliament and attempted to overthrow the Proprietary, Captain Monroe, a Protestant, joined Ingle in the Maryland rebellion, which was a miniature counterpart of the struggle then raging in England between Cavalier and Roundhead.

After the suppression of Ingle's revolt against the authority of the Calverts, Andrew Monroe took refuge across the Potomac in Westmoreland County, Virginia, where a land patent was issued to him in 1650. On this land President James Monroe was born in 1758—over a century after it had been granted to his first American ancestor.

It is interesting to note that Charles Tyler, the ancestor of President John Tyler, also left Maryland for Virginia, probably at the same time and under the same circumstances as Captain Monroe.

The descendants of Andrew Monroe and Elizabeth, his wife, became substantial citizens of the Northern Neck of Virginia, owning respectable estates and many slaves. Although the Monroes were prominent locally, being for several generations justices of the peace and officers in the militia, they did not occupy the same position in society as their wealthier neighbors, the Lees, Washingtons, Alstons and others, whose larger holdings entitled them to greater consideration both socially and politically.

In connection with the discarding of the tradition that the Monroes were of Cavalier stock, it is interesting to note that Thomas J. Wertenbaker in his "Patrician and Plebeian in Virginia" offers convincing evidence that the "first families of Virginia," so many of which are related by blood or marriage to prominent Maryland families, are, with only a few exceptions, derived from ancestors of the English merchant and, in some instances, yeoman classes. Despite the long-cherished belief in the Cavalier origin of these capable and cultured families, which have played such a prominent part in national affairs, Mr. Wertenbaker shows conclusively that the Virginia aristocracy was gradually developed on American soil instead of being transplanted, full-grown, from England, as so many historians have assumed.¹

THE GRAYSON FAMILY NEWSLETTER

NUMBER 4

NOVEMBER, 1987 by Richard R. Grayson, M.D.
Box 187, St. Charles, Il. 60174

AT LAST, THE COMPUTER:

Enclosed in this long-delayed Grayson Family Newsletter is a descendant chart of Benjamin Grayson of Wilkes County, North Carolina.

The story behind this chart is that our association has been collecting Grayson names and kin in these Newsletters for 10 years and we now have thousands of names. There has been no possibility of indexing the names until now. A Grayson descendant, Randall Richardson, has been entering names into his IBM-compatible computer, using the software from the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, known as THE PERSONAL ANCESTRAL FILE. I also have this software and an IBM compatible computer. Randall Richardson and I have formed an alliance for entering all Grayson names and their kin into the computer. I have been sending my charts to Randall and he and his wife have been entering the names and dates. He then sends me monthly data disk updates. We each, then, have the same material. Randall's plan is to use this information for a book. So please regard his work as copyrighted and do not publish it without his permission.

PLEASE SEND IN YOUR LATEST RESEARCH AND IDEAS FOR THE NEWS-LETTER.

If any of you have computers and would like to share data with us, you can purchase the software for $35.00 from the LDS, Genealogical Dept., Ancestral Files Unit, 50 East North Temple Street, Salt Lake City, UT 84150.

The program will print several kinds of genealogical reports, including pedigree charts, family group sheets, name-sorted lists, and descendant charts. The latter chart is the most interesting. The enclosed 20-page printout is a draft copy. We have 1552 names in the computer at present and perhaps 5,000 or more to enter. We propose to enter all known Graysons and their kin.

Please review the enclosed material and send corrections and additions to me. I will publish further charts and reports as soon as possible.

The advent of the computer will allow our group to be more than a letter-sharing experience. We soon will have a database that will be more accessible and usable than in the past.

Also enclosed are 19 pages of miscellaneous material sent in by correspondents. We all appreciate these.

24 April 1987

I received a letter today about a Grayson Association. Our line, that is my husband mother was a Grayson. Have been in search for the ancestors of her grandfather. The following is all the data we have on him. Has anyone in the Association had kin that moved to Texas?

William Harvey Grayson- born 29 Jan 1830 Tenn. was married 23 Feb 1857 in Monroe County, Tenn. Was on the 1860 census of Jasper county, Mo. Then by 1870 was in Ark. and on to Texas by 1880.

Some names in Harvey family, that is his children:

Charles, Alice, James, Joseph, Hugh, Marion, Sam. Lafayette. We do not know the name of Harvey's parents are silbings. Said his parents were born in Tenn. (this was noted on census).

How much does it cost to join the Grayson Association? Thank you for your time.

Mrs Bigbee

P.S. I was in contact with a Richard Grayson, M.D. some years ago- does the Association belong to his family?

Dear Dr. Grayson:

After having been only a passive researcher for the past two years, I have become more active during the last several months and enjoying it thoroughly. In late December/early January, I assembled 19 years of Grayson/Davis work into a requested format (on my Personal Computer) and sent it to be included in a revised-updated printing of "Old Speedwell Families" which is due out some time in the spring. Mrs. Joy Davis of La Follette, Tennessee is in charge of this endeavor as she was on her previous (1983) revised edition of Lawrence Edwards book that was originally published in 1955 on the early families of (Powell Valley) Speedwell, Claiborne Co., Tennessee.

As had been noted in the newsletters on several occasions, I am still trying to locate the parents of my ancestor Thomas M. Grayson (1830-1898). I have been focusing attention in trying to locate any relatives of a William E. Grayson who I believe is related to my Thomas M. In particular, I have spent months trying to find a John D. Grayson (b. 1905-Monroe City, Ill) son of Charles Drayton Grayson (b. near Lebanon and Trenton, Ill). (Charles had a brother William H.). This John D. is a great grandson of William E. Grayson.

After having discovered the above information on John D. from a 1978 newsletter (Vol. 2, No. 4, P. 87), I further learned that John moved to Los Angeles from Racine, Wisc. in 1960; a letter to his address was returned and phone calls to L.A. have proven fruitless. One of the Graysons there has agreed to do phone surveys for me in that area-nothing yet.

My Thomas M. and William E. are in the early 1850's tax and deed records at Tazewell, Claiborne Co., Tennessee. They surely are related.

If any of my fellow subscribers (or yourself) have information on John D./Charles D./William H./William E., I would be most grateful to hear from them.

Again Dr. Grayson, thanks so much for your continuing efforts and work on the newsletters.

Sincerely,

Wendell

Dear Mr. Grayson,

Some time ago I inquired about the Grayson Family Association. At that time I did not follow up and join the Association. However I would like to do that now. I am descended from Thomas Parrott and Sarah Ann Grayson who married in McMinn County, Tennessee on 8-20-1845. Both Thomas and Sarah were born in Tennessee. Thomas' parents were Charles Parrott and Margaret Day of Hawkins County, Tennessee. I do not know the parents of Sarah Ann Grayson but there was a Joseph Grayson residing in McMinn County at that time that could have been her Father. Sarah Ann died about 1861 and Thomas moved back to Hawkins County and remarried. Thomas and Sarah Ann had the following children: James Henry 5-9-1848, William Joseph 2-2-1850, Charles Rodham 12-22-1851, Greene Daniel 9-20-1853, Margaret Elizabeth 7-22-1855, Robert Fillmore 12-29-1856, Mary Elizabeth 3-25-1858, Nancy 5-1859. All were born in McMinn County. Sarah Ann had 2 sisters that were living with Thomas and Sarah in 1850. Their names were Anissa C. and Mary C who were born in 1836 and 1838 respectively. Joseph Grayson was born in North Carolina. I strongly suspect my Grayson line comes from North Carolina. There also was a Benjamin Grayson in the vicinity that may be related.

Please enroll me as a subscriber to the Grayson Family Association. I have enclosed an SASE for your reply. Please indicate whether back issues are available, cost of issues, number of times published per year, etc. I look forward to your reply. Thank you.

Dear Dr. Grayson,

The volumes of Newsletters have kept me busy, just trying to decide exactly what I am to do and where to begin, where others have already trod. I have color coded each page in every volume, rearranged, cross indexed, removed material; but, can put my hand on any one line pretty quick now and all the information that has been printed in the Newsletters. Yes, we need new information. You mention for a fee one might acquire or request copies of additional inf. that you have accumulated over the years. would it be possible for you to list said material and fee that might help in my search?

I have tried to get the Braper Collection microfilm (5 QQ-73-79) It is in the Albuquerque Lib. but I am unable to obtain and live 5 hrs. South. This 5QQ 73-79, relates to: Aug. 1780 Montgomery and Botetourt Co. Va. 1. Robert 2. John 3. Wm. Grayson all tried for treason and misbehavior. Who are these men?

I found in Montgomery and Fincastle Co, Va. wills, records

1. John Will probated 1802, issue: Betty, Lucy, John, Wm, Mary, Nancy, also partner, Wm. Hall of Wythe Co.
2. Wm. Will probated 1801 names wife and children: Billy Reuben, Ambrose, John, Betsy, Sally, and Polly.
3. Robert Dower assigned to Catherine Grayson his wife 3 Oct. 1797 (says just that)

Are these our misbehavin relatives tried for treason in 1780??? We can't all be kin to the great William and I will claim most any if the lineage fits (would be a small bit of my blood)

Davidson Co Tenn. is interesting - anyone have much on it? I find a Thomas 1793 married?? also the typed to death Joseph in Knox Co. 1798 m Patsy Breazeale . Thomas from S.C.

3. Thomas " --1793----Appoints Atty. "
4. Wm " --1805 Rec'd land , N.C. Grant, "

I have the Pension TN. application for one G.W..Grayson, b. Smith Co. 1836. De Kalb, Co. , resident of Tubbsville. Claim this poor one armed veteran and you may have his papers (May he rest in peace) Papers state, " He is a good case, but too well off." He says, " I don't make nothin", owned 85 acres, horse, cow hog, and a wife that was heir to 100 acres. Pension Denied.

Dear Dr. Grayson,

Thank you very much for your reply to my letter and for sending me the very interesting newsletters as well as information about the Grayson Family Association. I have enjoyed reading all the material. Enclosed you will find a check for $14.00 to cover the cost of the two newsletters you mailed.

According to the information you sent, Ann Bronaugh who married Benjamin Grayson was born in 1760 or afterwards. According to the Bible record of Aaron Deveny, father of Robert Black Deveny, Susannah Grayson Deveny was born May 25, 1777, a fact that would indicate that her father was probably born at least by 1755. Aaron Deveny's Bible record is on file in Washington D. C. in his Revolutionary War Pension Claim, dated 1832, Number S 8321.

There is an estate settlement for Joseph Grayson, father of Susannah Grayson Deveny in Rutherford County, North Carolina, which includes information proving that Susannah Grayson Deveny was Joseph Grayson's daughter. In looking over my records, I notice I will have to check further to see where Joseph Grayson's estate settlement was filed as I do not have that record in hand at this moment and I am not sure that it was in Rutherford County.

The children of Robert Black and Susannah (Grayson) Deveny were Robert Black Deveny, Jr. who married Frances Cook Champion in 1840 in Franklin County, Tennessee; Jane, who married a Brackett; William; Jenkins; Joseph G.; Benjamin; Aaron J.; Sarah, who married a Pruett

I am inclined to think that the wife of Joseph Grayson, father of Susannah Grayson Deveny, was a Marquis as Robert Black Deveny, Jr. and his wife Frances Cook Champion used family names for their children and among others there was a James Marquis Deveny as well as a Joseph Grayson Deveny.

Could it be that Benjamin Grayson II, born circa 1730, was the father of the Benjamin Grayson who married Ann Bronaugh, born circa 1760 as well as Joseph Grayson, born circa 1750, father of Susannah Grayson Deveny? Or could it be that Ann Bronaugh was the second wife of Benjamin Grayson II and Joseph was a son by his first wife?

Thanks again for everything.

Sincerely,

Harold T. Purvis

Dear Sir:

I am interested in the Grayson Family Association.

My Grayson connections are as follows:

Nancy Grayson married Thomas Cecil, my g.g.g.g.grandfather , in 1780. Thomas Cecil b. 3 Sept.1756 Prince Georges Cty., Md. died 20 August 1823, Troy, Miami Cty., Ohio. Nancy Grayson, born 12 Aug. 1763, died 14 Sept. 1814. Her parents were John and Barbara Grayson who lived in Culpepper Cty., Va.

Quite a few of the descendants from this couple carried the Grayson name as a middle name or given name.

John Grayson Cecil, my g.g.g.grandfather b.25 June, 1790 d. 2 July 1861, married Elizabeth Wygal b. 2 January 1792, d. 24 March 1866. They are probably buried in the Cecil Chapel Cemetery, in Pulaski County, Virginia.

I realize this is very sketchy information, but I am interested in tracing the family of Nancy Grayson Cecil. I would like to receive your quarterly.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Dear Doctor Grayson:

While my contributions to our family publication have been very limited over the last several months, I remain quite interested.

Enclosed is an excerpt from the Smithsonian Magazine relative to the bird paintings of Andrew Jackson Grayson, the Audubon of the West, which may be of interest to some of our readers.

While on a trip to Alabama this past summer, I visited the State Dep't of Archives and History. My time was limited but I was able to secure copies of their card index for the name of Grayson. Copies of these are also enclosed. This office has a file of news clippings going back to the 1800's on microfilm and for a relatively small fee, they will copy all items for a particular surname. This can be handled entirely by mail if anyone is interested. A blank request form is enclosed.

As of 1 Jan 87, I will be residing in sunny Florida - semi-retirement. My address will be:

Howard E. Grayson

Merry Christmas to you and yours.

FOSTER FAMILY

according to family tradition in Bledsoe County. He became very active in the political life of the County and was a representative for Bledsoe and Morgan Counties in the 28th General Assembly between 1849-51. On the local scene he was coroner for the county in 1836, Constable in 1837, Deputy sheriff 1838-41, judge of the election commission in 1845, and road commissioner in 1846.

On March 20, 1836, Thomas Foster married Rebecca Gourley in Pikeville. She was the daughter of Edward and Elizabeth Gourley of Blount County, Tennessee. They had the following children: James; Alexander; Elizabeth who married W.S. Brown; Mary; Martha who married John T. Rogers; William E.; Myra who married James M. Leeper; John; Thomas G. and Simpson Foster. Thomas Foster died on May 10, 1857 and is buried in the Spring family graveyard south of Pikeville.

Another of the Foster Clan in Sequatchie Valley was William Foster, born in the valley. He married Nancy Blaylock, daughter of Hubbard Blaylock. Shortly after their marriage, they moved to Bridgeport, Alabama. It was there that William died and sometime later Nancy died as well. They left four small children who were returned to their grandfather Hubbard Blaylock where they finished their childhood. One of their sons Ephram H. Foster settled in that portion of the county that became Cumberland County, sometime in 1846. His brothers Jonah and Joshua moved to Douglas County, Missouri and finally settled in Fannin County, Texas where they died. A fourth brother, Samuel remained in Bledsoe County.

Ephram H. Foster joined the Company L of the 4th East Tennessee Calalry in February 1864 and remained with this unit until July 1865. After the Civil War, he returned to Cumberland County, Tennessee and found that his grandfather had died during the war. He came back to Bledsoe County to work for a time as a farm laborer in the valley. During this time, he found his bride, Miss Sarah Hyder, daughter of Alfred Hyder. She was born in Cumberland County and died about the year 1878 leaving him with four small children. These were: Nancy, who married George Sweat of Jackson County, Tennessee; Thomas; Amanda and William who died in infancy. In 1879, Ephram H. married a second time to Clementine Fields, born in 1852 in White County, Tennessee the daughter of Isaac Fields. To this union were born seven children: James; Role; Rachel; Emeline; Jonah; Martha; Sammie; John and Annie.

Further down the valley in what is now Marion County, George Foster settled. He is not found in the early census of Marion County, but the Deed Books show that on January 30, 1822, George Foster sold to his sons Albert G., Henry A. and William W. his 150 acre tract of land that also included a ferry at the mouth of Battle Creek on the Tennessee River. This is the same tract of land that was granted to Alexander Kelly. George Foster, Jr. was witness to this transaction.

// GRAYSON FAMILY

The Grayson family settled in Marion County early in the 19th century when Joseph Grayson registered 70 acres in the county and settled this land with his wife, Elizabeth Brazil Grayson. One of their sons, Henry, born on November 2, 1799 in Anderson County, Tennessee came with his parents to Marion County and here settled with his family as well. He was married to Nancy Hixon born on July 22, 1799 in Greene County, Tennessee. The Grayson family was known for their smithing, wagonmaking and later the grain mill. Henry and Nancy were married in Bledsoe County on September 11, 1820. Her father was a physician and served in the War of 1812.

Henry and Nancy Hixon Grayson had nine children:

Pleasant Grayson, the first child, was a member of the Union Army during the Civil War and served as one of the body guards for Governor Andrew Johnson while in Nashville.

Mr. Otto P. Grayson of Whitwell writes about Pleasant Grayson:

"Pleasant Grayson, the oldest son of Henry and Nancy was a self taught doctor. At that time people who lived in the Grayson Cove area would become violently ill from what was then diagnosed as milk sickness. They sometimes died from this illness. It was thought to be caused from drinking milk from cows that grazed in an area of the cove. This oldest brother discovered a treatment for this ailment, I have mentioned this to Doctors and none have any knowledge of this ailment."

Louisa Grayson, the eldest daughter of Henry and Nancy Grayson, married Joseph Burnett.

Andrew Grayson, the third child of Henry and Nancy Grayson, died without issue.

James M. Grayson, the fourth child of Henry and Nancy Grayson moved to Texas. It is in Montague County, Texas that he remained until his death.

The following from HISTORY OF NORTHERN AND WESTERN TEXAS by Paddock refers to James M. Grayson:

The history of pioneer life in Montague county is familiar to James M. Grayson, who lived here during the period of early Indian depredations when the red men were often hostile and committed many a murder, as well as thieving. Brave and fearless, Mr. Grayson continued to reside on the frontier and aided in its reclamation for the purposes of civilization. He has become a prominent farmer and stockman and now has valuable interests in Montague county. A native of Marion County, Tennessee, he was born May 16, 1831 and was reared to farm life upon the homestead place of his parents, Henry and Nancy (Hixon) Grayson, the former a native of Virginia and the latter of Tennessee, in which state they were married.

Henry Grayson, the paternal great-grandfather of our subject, came from England to America, being the only one of the family to cross the Atlantic. He settled first in Virginia and afterward removed to Tennessee, where he reared his family and spent his last years. His son, Henry Grayson, was born in Virginia and with the family went to Tennessee, where he also remained, reared his family and died. His children were: Benjamin, Joseph, and Henry, Jr., the last named being the father of James M. Grayson. Benjamin and Joseph Grayson removed to Missouri, where Joseph and his wife died, leaving a family of small children without means for support. Henry then went to that state and took his children back with him to Tennessee, caring for them until they were able to care for themselves. He married and settled in Tennessee, becoming a prominent farmer, stockman and slave owner there. He had a large tract of land and also built and operated an extensive flour mill, having the finest water power mill in Tennessee. Early in life he was an influential Whig and later became a Democrat. Possessing much oratorical ability as a fluent speaker, he did effective work in campaigns, but never sought office for himself. Believing in secession he did much valuable service for the Confederacy, although he was too old to enter the army. His farm lay in the tract of both the northern and southern troops, who forages off his place, taking his stock, destroying his personal property, ruining his fine mill and devastating his estate. some of his slaves left home during the war and others at the close of hostilities and the ruins of a vast estate were all that was left of his life's earnings. However, he managed in later years to acquire a competency for old age and he passed away on the family homestead at the ripe old age of eighty-two years. He was a broad minded, intelligent businessman, also possessed strong social qualities and delighted in entertaining his many friends. He was likewise charitable to the needy, was a considerate neighbor and all who knew him respected him for his loyalty in every relation of life. A faithful member of the Christian church, he was a great Bible student, earnest in church work and exemplifying in his life his religious faith. His wife survived him and died in 1882 at the age of eighty-two years. She was reared in Tennessee and passed away at the old homestead there. She was a descendant of the Hixon family, widely and prominently known in the state. She had a brother, Joseph, and there were also other members of the family, but the record has not been kept. Mrs. Grayson was a devoted member of the Presbyterian church for many years and a worthy Christian lady, beloved by all who knew her."

Houston Grayson, another of Henry and Nancy's children, remained on the family farm in Marion County until his death. Joseph Grayson, another of Henry and Nancy's children, leaves no record.

William H. Grayson, born April 12, 1826 to Henry and Nancy Grayson, was educated at the Burnett School at Spencer, Tennessee as well as those at Red Hill and Looney's Creek. When the Tennessee Coal, Iron and R.R. Company opened up their mines at Whitwell, he took charge of their blacksmith shop for about a year. After this he returned to the farm. He was married on December 5, 1849 to Sarah Cowan, born in Jackson County, Alabama on April 1, 1827. Their family consisted of three children: Joseph, who operated the family farm in Marion; Esther Louisa who married Byron Hudson and Samuel H. who moved to Chattanooga where he lived and applied his his trade learned from his father and grandfather of blacksmithing. William H. Grayson joined the Union Army in September 1864 in Captain William Pryor's company. In this outfit he was in the Battle of Atlanta. He was given an honorable discharge in Nashville on June 30, 1865.

Patrick H. Grayson, a son of Henry and Nancy Hixon Grayson was born on September 4, 1825. He married on September 26, 1850 to Martha J. Moore, born June 1830, the daughter of George and Nancy E. Moore, in Marion County, Tennessee. Like the rest of his family, he was engaged in farming and smithing.

During the Civil War, Patrick H. Grayson joined the Confederate Army on September 1862 under the leadership of Captain Patrick H. Price Company of the Third Tennessee Cavalry. He went to Kentucky, Chattanooga and later to middle Tennessee where he was in the Battle of Fort Donelson and Beech Grove. He was captured in 1863 in Marion County and remained in prison until the end of the war.

Mr. O.P. Grayson of Whitwell writes about Patrick H.:

"I remember many of his Civil War stories. His army or his regiment was camped in Tulahoma, Tennessee. After the Union Army had moved on, I remember the story where his commanding officer ordered him to get, keep and empty several barrels of brandy that the Federals had left behind. The Captain asked that all of their canteens be filled first. Most of the Federal's supplies were burned before evacuation, but one barrel of brown sugar was overlooked. The Confederates enjoyed these as their rations were short."

"My grandfather (Patrick H.) saved a neighbor's life. He and the neighbor had been given leave to ride home from their station in Alabama. Battle Creek in Marion County had no bridge and water was high. The neighbor had never ridden a swimming horse. Grandfather gave him instructions for follow him, but the neighbor ducked his horse and was thrown into the water. The horse followed grandfather but the neighbor became panic stricken and called for help. Grandfather was a good swimmer and swam out and instructed the neighbor how to swim to the shore. I remember the neighbor. His granddaughter is now in my Sunday School Class. After the Civil War my grandfather moved to the State of Oregon and farmed for six years. Coyotes were a pest and the State paid a bounty of $5.00. Grandfather was working near a large creek when a coyote chased by hounds swam down the creek and was killed by grandfather with a club. The owner of the hounds claimed the bounty."

Returning to Marion County after the war, Patrick H. Grayson again returned to the farm and became active in the community and also politics. He was several times Justice of the Peace and held the public office in high regard.

Anderson Creek Grayson, the youngest of Henry and Nancy Grayson, was born on December 23, 1841 on the farm near Whitwell, Tennessee. He took his education in the schools near his home until the beginning of the Civil War. In December 1861, he volunteered into the Confederate Army under Captain Rankins and Colonel Starnes. For a time he was stationed near Nashville, and later at Rogersville, as the advance guard of General Kirby Smith. He took part in a number of battles and skirmishes in Kentucky under Colonel Scott, of a Louisiana Regiment who was acting Brigadier, notably that of Richmond and the capture of Frankfort, and assisted in raising the Confederate flag over the state capitol at the latter place. He was also at the Battles of Redmound and Thompson's Station in Tennessee and in the engagement on the Columbia Pike, when with Lieutenant Havron's command, they covered the retreat of General Braston Bragg from Tullahoma, when Colonel Starnes was killed. He was with General Forrest in the pursuit and capture of Colonel Stuart with all his men, near Rome, Georgia. He was, also with his company at Chattanooga and on Chickamauga's bloody field, and in the fall of 1863 was the last Confederate to leave the heights of Strings Ridge, he having been on picket duty there, north of the Tennessee River. His command was then detailed to remain in Lookout Valley to watch the movements of the Federal Army, but he was soon afterward captured near home, remaining a paroled prisoner until the close of the war.

After the war, he returned home to the farm and later took over the operations of the mill built by his father at Standifer Cove. After the war, he married on May 6, 1869 to Josephine L. Barber the daughter of William R. and Nancy M. Real Barber. To this union were born eight children: Florence N. who married Frank Kelly; Lawrence H. who married Lilla M. Wilson; Lula F.; Ella Elizabeth; Mattie Electa; Irvin Anderson; Alva Josephine and Mina Agnes.

GREER FAMILY

The Greer family of Sequatchie Valley trace their ancestry back to the time of the Scottish king Alpin who died in 835 A.D. The Greers do trace back to his son Gregor when their name was spelled "Gregor" and later "MacGregor" which means the 'son of Gregor'.

The first of the clan to come to America was William Greer who settled in 1730 in Anne Arundel County, Maryland. He had married in England to Mary Finch (Fitch) and there had four sons. These were William, James, Shadrach and John Greer. These four sons came to America with their parents, but their sympathies remained in England. In America, William and Mary had other children: Walter; Acquilla; Moses; a son whose name is unknown and one daughter, Rebecca.

During the Revolutionary War, the four brothers who came from England refused to fight, except Shadrack who joined the British Army and fought for England. The four sons born in America took up arms for the Continental Army. Moses Greer, one of the sons of William and Mary, served as an aide for General Washington and was with him at the Battle of Yorktown.

MANSFIELD FAMILY

son Davis Mansfield. These two brothers founded the Mansfield Milling Company in 1892 located three miles north of Pikeville on the Sequatchie River in the Cold Spring Community near the Hutcheson Bend of the River. They operated the mill until about 1910 when it burned. This was later sold to William A. Watson in 1912.

Houston Alexander Mansfield, born on September 2, 1863 near Dunlap was married on December 21, 1898 to Eugenia Maude Henry, the daughter of James F. Henry and his wife Antonette E.B. Pankey. To this union were born James; Eva who married Clyde E. McCollum; Mary who married N.J. Ferguson, Jr.; Edna who married Val R. Reich, Jr. and Jeanette married A.V. Whitson.

It seems that the trades worked through the hands of the Mansfields as they were millers, carpenters and blacksmiths from the beginning of their arrival in the valley even down to the present generation. It seems that one of Norman Mansfield's sons, i.e. Alexander L. purchased the Mansfield's Mill in 1859 from his father. He was learning the trade of miller before he was able to carry a sack of grain. He operated the mill during the Civil War when both armies left him alone. He sold out prior to 1866 and moved to Dunlap and became a carpenter for a time until his brother William and he went into the farming business together. Alexander L. Mansfield married on August 17, 1857 to Lizzie Rains, born February 16, 1838 in Bledsoe County the daughter of Josiah Rains. They had five children: William; John, a miller in Salisbury, North Carolina; Clayton moved to Oklahoma; Aschas married Gilliam Farmer of Marion County and Nettie who married Samuel Welch.

MOORE FAMILY

The Moore family of Sequatchie Valley came to the area in two waves. There is the one that came into the Valley originally from the Virginia side of the family and then there are those who seemed to have come via North Carolina.

The Virginia side of the family came into the area when John Moore and his wife Amanda Woods, a daughter of Richard Woods of Botetout County, Virginia, settled in Rhea County at Old Washington. According to the Rhea County Court Minutes, John Moore built the first jail for the county. Amanda's sister Jane Woods married Ezekiel Stone who settled also in Sequatchie Valley. To John and Amanda were born the following children: Richard Woods Moore, who moved to Arkansas; Polly or Mary married Robert Raines; Drewsilla married Elliott H. Boyd and moved to Sequatchie Valley; Lucy Moore married John Williams and settled in Alabama; Jane married William D. Shirley and settled in Illinois and George Washington Moore.

George Washington Moore, born January 25, 1799 married Nancy Elizabeth Davis. In 1824, they moved to Red Hill in the middle of the valley settling on the Sequatchie River. He died on October 1, 1844 and left the following children: Marcus De La Fayette, who never married; Martha who married Patrick H. Grayson; Thomas Jefferson who married Elizabeth Hackworth; Napoleon Bonaparte who married Jane Stewart; Emaline who married James Grayson; Millie Ann married Calvin Maxwell; James Monroe married Elizabeth Moss and settled in Texas; Richard Jackson married Elizabeth Condra and George Washington Moore, Jr. who married Nancy Elizabeth McDaniel. In the 1850 Marion County Census, these are listed somewhat differently: #60 Nancy E. Moore 44; Nepolian 21; Martha 20; Milina 19; George W. 16; Marcus 14; Elizabeth 12; Thos. J. 11; James 9 and Richard 8.

George Washington Moore, Jr. was born September 21, 1833 on the farm at Red Hill and married Nancy Elizabeth McDaniel on September 19, 1861. He purchased a farm at Moore's Crossing and there he lived until his death on May 29, 1907. He is buried in the McDaniel Chapel Cemetery near his home. His children are: Goodson McDaniel
